EGYPTIAN TROOPS ATTACK HOSPITAL, KILLING THREE DOCTORS

Mutineers Shoot Down One British and Two Syrian Physicians—British Troops Open Fire on Attackers, Who Suffered Severe Casualties—Many Arrests

LONDON, Nov. 28.—A number of additional arrests of Egyptian deputies were made today, says an agency despatch from Cairo.

Troops in Mutiny
CAIRO, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—Two platoons of the eleventh Sudanese at Khartoum today mutinied and attacked the military hospital, killing one British and two Syrian doctors.

British troops fired on the mutineers, who suffered severe casualties.

Further details of the mutiny are not yet available. It is known, however, that a certain number of soldiers in the eleventh battalion last August.

The big meeting of the students of Al Azhar university, called for today, passed off without incident.

British cavalry and infantry again paraded Cairo this forenoon and reconnaissance were carried out over the principal towns. All were reported quiet.

Orders upon the Egyptian government.

One of the points in the British case after the assassination of Sir Lee Stack, the sirdar of the Egyptian army, was for the evacuation of the Sudan by all the Egyptian forces there.

A Cairo despatch last night said that when the acting sirdar gave the necessary orders for the evacuation, the Egyptian officers and troops declined to obey and offered resistance, declaring they would not leave unless they received orders from the Egyptian government.

British troops thereupon surrounded the Egyptians and the government at Khartoum, capital of the Sudan, telegraphed Cairo asking that such orders be issued. The message intimated that the Egyptian troops were ready to resist further but pointed out that they had only 20 rounds of ammunition per man, whereas the British had "unlimited supplies."

After a meeting of the Egyptian ministry the war minister ordered the withdrawal to prevent "useless bloodshed."

Violent Tempest Wrought Havoc Along Coast And in the Interior of France

Rowboat With Eight Occupants Went Down With All Hands

PARIS, Nov. 28.—A violent tempest yesterday wrought havoc both along the western seaboard and in the interior of France, occasioning also some loss of life.

At Nantes a rowboat ferrying homeward-bound workers from the shipyard across the Loire filed and sank when struck by a large wave, drowning the eight occupants. At the Sables-d'Olonne a steamer was swept off a keel while trying to make the harbor and was drowned.

In the Cherbourg region houses were unroofed and trees uprooted, while a pontoon used in harbor improvement work was torn from its moorings and driven against the steamship Castor, lying in the roads. All steamship service to Havre was delayed.

Near Le Mans the wind started two freight cars, blowing them into a passenger train, and three persons were injured. Other freight cars were blown off the tracks at Champagne, nearby, causing long delays in the Paris-Brest train service.

At the Breton airbase several sheds were unroofed and eight military airplanes damaged. Numbers of fishing craft have failed to return to their home ports and it is feared some may have been lost.

FRANCE IS THREATENED WITH A COMMUNIST REVOLUTION

Cardinal Dubois Appeals to All French Catholics to "Fight Against Danger Which Menaces So Imminently—The Hour is Grave—God Protect France"

PARIS, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—France is threatened with a communist revolution, according to a declaration by Cardinal Dubois to be published tomorrow in the Semaine Religieuse, an official Catholic organ.

Appealing to all French Catholics to "fight against the danger which menaces so imminently," the cardinal writes: "The hour is grave. We must react today; tomorrow perhaps will be too late. God protect France!"

The cardinal's manifesto, which is circulated throughout France by the Agency Havas, deals with the red demonstration at the ceremony attending the transference to the Pantheon of the ashes of Jean Jaures, the martyred socialist leader.

It continues: "Is victorious France, six years after the war, to be a victim of revolution? One may well fear it immediately. All good citizens do not resist for the honor and safety of the country."

EAMON DE VALERA ARRIVES IN DUBLIN

DUBLIN, Nov. 28.—Eamon de Valera who was released today by the Ulster authorities after a month's imprisonment for entering the northern area, arrived in Dublin today and drove to the republican headquarters.

De Valera looked thin after his solitary confinement and explained this by declaring that the food served him and the conditions under which he was held, were generally like those of the English convict prisons in 1916.

During his imprisonment, he said, he was allowed no reading matter except religious books in Gaelic; also no visitors except the prison chaplain. De Valera was especially interested in the news of the Egyptian situation.

RUSSIAN REPLY TO BRITISH NOTE

Answer to Alleged Linoviet Letter and Anglo-Russian Treaty Received

Soviet Charge d'Affaires to Deliver it to Foreign Office in London

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The Russian reply to the British note regarding the alleged Linoviet letter and the Anglo-Russian treaty has been received in London and it is expected that Christian Rakovsky, the soviet charge d'affaires, will deliver it to the foreign office today.

The text has not been published as yet, but it is understood to agree with the forecast given out earlier in the week, being along the lines generally anticipated by the foreign office.

A Moscow despatch on Tuesday said the soviet reply to the British note would probably reiterate the demand that the authenticity of the alleged Linoviet letter be passed upon by an arbitration committee. Regarding the British rejection of the Anglo-Russian treaty, the reply was expected to state that all the soviet could do was to express regret that the opportunity had been lost to establish cordial diplomatic and commercial relations.

Started This Morning—We Keep Our Stocks Turning Constantly

We carry so many individual, one-of-a-kind garments that it is not unusual for some to move slower than others; and for this reason we go through out stocks and mark down all slow selling styles. The Star Map for December

This map shows the heavens as they appear at 9 p. m., Dec. 1; 8 p. m., Dec. 15, and 7 p. m., Dec. 31, to an observer in 35 degrees north latitude, though a change of 5 degrees or so in latitude will make little difference in the appearance of the heavens. The map should be held inverted or overhead with top toward the north. It will be noted that the magnificent constellation of Orion is now well above the eastern horizon. To the northeast of Orion appears Gemini, the Twins, containing the bright stars Castor and Pollux which, there is reason to believe, have changed in relative brightness within historic times. The planet Mars of which so much has been heard this year will be found to the south of the Great Square in Pegasus. It is now moving rapidly eastward through the constellation of Pegasus, the Fishes, and is receding from the earth and decreasing in brightness. It can easily be distinguished by its brilliant reddish color. It is by far the brightest object in the southwestern part of the heavens. No other planet is now in view at the time for which the map is given.

"RED GRANGE" GOES ON RAMPAGE

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—The name "Red" Grange has taken on unusual significance at the scene of the international live stock exposition today and a dozen cow punchers of Packingtown are convinced that the bearer of such a name can back through the most formidable line ever composed. "Red" Grange, not the football hero, but a red short-horn steer named in his honor, arrived as one of a number of animals the University of Illinois is entering in the show. In the course of the unloading process "Red" Grange plunged through the line of cow boys and herdsmen as he charged off the unloading platform. The exact yardage he made in the run that followed was not determined, but he was found some time later pawing up the back yard of Mrs. Mary Burke, a mile away. "Red" Grange, apparently content with his achievement, permitted himself to be led quietly back to his stall in the show building.

THANKSGIVING PARTY IN CHELMSFORD

Chehmsford's annual Thanksgiving feast and ball, held in the centre town hall last evening, was a most successful event, proving to be a great drawing card for regular attendants, young and old, from many surrounding towns, and Lowell as well.

The arrangements, as of yore, were under the direction of a very efficient committee of Ballarian church school members as follows: Miss M. Florence Perham, Mrs. V. L. Merrill, Mrs. G. Leslie Perham, William H. Hall, Mrs. Robert Tangle, Sidney G. Perham, Edwin Warren, Allan Adams, Walter Jewett, A. L. Harmon and Karl M. Perham.

Sugar Coated Cod Liver Oil Tablets For Thin Kids

Forget the horrible tasting Cod Liver Oil and give the thin, puny, undeveloped children McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets if you want to give them a good appetite and put pounds of good healthy flesh on their bones.

Doctors know all about them and so do Green's Drug Store, A. W. Dows & Co., Fred Howard and all good pharmacists, for they are in great demand, because they are not laggards but show results in a few days.

They are not expensive either—30 tablets 60 cents, and children take them like candy. "One skinny woman gained 5 pounds in 21 days."

CROSSWORD PUZZLE CONTEST BY RADIO

By N.E.A. Service
 NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The crossword puzzle had been struck radio. Broadcasting station WATG here has been repeating nightly one of these checked problems until finally it has heard from a fan clear across the continent.
 Herbert C. Colburn of San Leandro, Calif., has sent in a solution to the station's crossword puzzle which has been put on nightly at 9 o'clock. The broadcasters figure Colburn has been busy with his pad and pencil at 6 in the early evening.
 The set on which he has been receiving the puzzle definitions is several years old, too.
 Besides money prizes, WATG has been distributing autographed crossword puzzle books, and holds a cup to be given as first prize to the best crossword puzzle radio fan of the lot.

NO LATE PUPILS NOWADAYS
 By N.E.A. Service
 OAKLAND, Calif., Nov. 28.—School children are early at school in California. Radio gets them there ahead of time.
 The drawing card is a daily series of interesting programs broadcast through station KGO here, and furnished by the State Board of Education.
 Music by public school children will fill the air and start the day properly. Then there will be such interesting talks as tales of old Pacific pirates and their adventures, California history and geography and other topics.
 Every lesson will be preceded and followed by music. And every school in the state, including especially the country schoolhouse, listens in.

C-BATTERY SAVES U
 The C-battery is a precautionary appliance rather than a positive help. Its main purpose is to keep the tubes from draining the B-battery, thus producing quite a saving. It also reduces set noises.
 LOW FREQUENCY BETTER
 Low frequency waves have been found to travel farther than the high frequency, according to the Frenchman, M. P. Villard, of the Academy of Sciences.

INTERNATIONAL SHOW
 Geneva, home of the League of Nations, is planning to be host next September at an international radio exposition. All the nations of the world are expected to participate.
 SALES GOING UP
 Last year's sale of receiving sets amounted to about $150,000,000 in value. The 1924 holiday season is considered the most productive ever.
 FARMHOUSE BROADCAST
 An old farmhouse tucked away in a small village, seven miles from New Bedford, Mass., is the home of broadcasting station WBBG. This is the "Voice of Cape Cod."

YEARS ADD RESPECT
 Away back in Viking days, the virtues of cod-liver oil were known, but only in recent days have its vitamin-qualities been fully realized.

Scott's Emulsion is the same wonderful builder of strength that it was fifty years ago, when its founders and present makers first made it available to serve human need.
 Everywhere Scott's Emulsion, the strength-builder, rich in vitamins, commands the respect and confidence and the use of millions.

FIREMEN HOLD ANNUAL CONCERT AND BALL

The annual concert and ball by the Lowell Firemen's Relief Fund association was held Wednesday evening in the Memorial Auditorium, and was the greatest success of any event of its kind within the past ten years.

From early in the evening until 1 o'clock Thanksgiving morning, the spacious floor of the Auditorium was crowded with couples dancing to the strains of Broderick's augmented orchestra, and a feature of the crowd which was especially gratifying to the firemen in charge of the event was the large number of young people in attendance.

There was no grand march scheduled for this year's event, a concert from 8 to 9 o'clock and general dancing from 9 to 1 a. m. the following morning making up the program. Refreshments were on sale in the lobby of the Auditorium all evening.

The concert consisted of selections by the orchestra as follows: March, "National Emblem," overture, "Barber of Seville," selection, "Songs From the Old Folks," and march, "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Ident. William Christie was general manager of the ball and was assisted by the following: John Thomas, assistant general manager; Thomas McCough, floor director; William Graham, floor director; George A. Cummings, E. F. Sullivan, Hugh Pinnerly and James McCready, chief aids; George Joseph, treasurer; and Capt. George H. McDermott, secretary.

The reception committee follows: Chief Edward F. Saunders, District Chiefs James C. Sullivan, Daniel H. Crowley, Thomas F. Saunders and Richard E. Burns.

Mayor Donovan's Opponent:—

(From Courier-Citizen, Nov. 26)

"The October financial report, just issued by the City Auditor, does not show any statement for the Charity Department. I have asked the Auditor's office the reason for this, as it has never happened before."

"I was told that the 'Charity Department' is short of funds and had no money to pay its bills so that the statement was left out of the monthly report."

"This department went broke a short time ago and was given an additional $35,000."

"Now it is broke again, and to cover it up they leave the report out of the monthly record."

MAYOR'S OFFICE

Daniel E. Martin, City Auditor November 28, 1924
Dear Sir—Kindly advise this office today of the amount of the unexpended balances, of this date, in the Charity Department.

JOHN J. DONOVAN, Mayor.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE

Hon. John J. Donovan, Lowell, Mass. November 28, 1924.
Dear Mr. Mayor:—In answer to your letter of even date I would respectfully advise that the unexpended balances, as of this date, in the Charity Department are as follows:

Chelmsford Street Hospital—Salary and Wages.....	$1,529.34
Expense and supply	9,030.15
Mothers with Dependent Children—
Salary and Wages	5,448.75
Expense and Supply	3,288.22
Outdoor Relief—Salary and Wages.....	3,597.89
Expense and Supply	10,513.36

Trusting that the above gives you the desired information, I am,

Respectfully,

DANIEL E. MARTIN, City Auditor.

DOES THE AUDITOR'S LETTER SHOW THE CHARITY DEPARTMENT TO BE "BROKE AGAIN"?

When one is inaccurate in a statement like this, doubt and mistrust of all statements coming from the same source naturally follow.

JUST READ THIS—

Excerpts from report of Massachusetts State Division of Accounts on results of examination conducted at the Chelmsford Street Hospital, filed today. Edward F. Felton, chief examiner.

Page 7—"During the examination it was observed that all employees were active and steadily at work. No loitering was apparent and I am inclined to be in accord with the superintendent that the present force is needed for the proper conduct of the hospital."

Page 8—"The actual expense of conducting the hospital this year as compared with 1923 shows, however, that affairs are really being conducted more economically and that the average cost of taking care of each patient has been reduced. The table appended explains this in detail. The entire hospital is a model of cleanliness and good care, and a visit to it by interested citizens of Lowell would convince them that it is being capably conducted."

In View of the Above Facts, Let Us Hear No More About the Charity Department

COMMUNITY CHEST "SALES ARMY" READY

Lowell's community chest team organization is practically ready to take up the duties assigned to it by the directors of the coming campaign. Wednesday evening, at campaign headquarters in chamber of commerce, Fred C. Church was chosen to head one of the team divisions, and will have the title of major. George H. Russell will be major of the office and retail division and Royal P. White leader of the employees' division. A home and school district will also be formed later, and a major named to lead the division work.

The "sales army" starts on the city wide campaign, on Dec. 8 next, and four main divisions of workers, numbering in all more than 500 men and women, are expected to be prepared to move from headquarters to the field of solicitation. Great confidence is expressed by enthusiastic citizen aids of the coming campaign participated in by 12 local social welfare agencies.

Each day during the drive for subscriptions, the members of the organization will be served luncheons in Liberty hall. Each team will report daily during the noon recess and a huge blackboard will show the results of each team's labors from day to day. Royal P. White, chairman of the employees' division, today issued a call for an important preliminary meeting of executive heads of all local manufacturing plants, to be held at the headquarters of Lowell Boys' club next Monday night. At this meeting the method of carrying on the campaign in the industrial plants represented, will be outlined and decided upon. Tonight, Dr. Frank E. Jaynes will deliver a lecture covering some phases of Lowell's community chest program.

At 4.15 next Monday afternoon, Dr. Jaynes will be the guest of Lowell Teachers' association, at a special meeting called in High school assembly hall.

Excella Pattern Department

Excella Patterns possess a smartness and distinction rarely seen except in high-priced, ready-to-wear garments of the work of the finest dressmakers.

Chic, distinction, smartness are the qualities the modern woman wants in a pattern, but a design may possess all these requirements and lose every one of them in the making.

It is for this reason that we emphasize the mechanical perfection of Excella Printed Patterns. They are not only printed, but are also perforated and cut out, and in addition they include the famous Pietafrat.

It is impossible to go wrong in making up an Excella Printed Pattern, and every bit of the chic smartness of the original design appears in the finished garment.

CHARACTER PARTY

A character party under the auspices of the Silvestra Mills Athletic Association of North Chelmsford was held in the mill recreation hall Wednesday night and proved a huge success. After the grand march, which was led by Agnes Bernard F. Gilmore and her wife, general dancing was enjoyed. For the best character costume, James Murray of this city won first prize in the men's division, while Mrs. Fred Heyward won the women's first prize. John McInnis of this city won a 20-pound turkey for lucky admission ticket. Arthur J. Rousseau was general manager of the affair.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 14

"After him!" shouted Jack. "Whoever can catch hold of the cart gets the first ride." Every midget joined the chase. Flip went around corners like the wind and on several occasions almost tipped the cart over. Then he would go even faster on a straight path.

Jack figured that the midgets would bring his dog back as soon as one of them caught up to the cart. So he sat down on a little toadstool to rest. You can imagine how surprised he was when the toadstool started to rise up in the air, taking Jack toward the ceiling of Midget Land.

At first Jack decided to slip down off of the toadstool. Then he changed his mind and decided to hang on just to see where it would take him. Surely, he thought, I can only go up as far as the ceiling. But, much to his surprise, when he got that far the ceiling opened up. (Continued.)

Has Hard Time to Feed Wife

Once Stomach Trouble—Now Big Appetite

"My wife was afflicted with stomach trouble for years. She tried everything but got no relief. Adierika was recommended to me and I want to give my heartfelt thanks. My wife is now in the BEST OF HEALTH and is costing me about all I make to feed her. Have recommended Adierika to a good many and it has helped every one." (Signed) P. M. Noble.

Intestinal Evacuant

There is now offered to the public a liquid preparation which is not only a wonderfully effective and QUICK intestinal evacuant, but which also seems to stimulate the glands of the intestinal tract and to cause expulsion of flatus (GAS). This preparation, known as Adierika, is a valuable agent for the purpose of cleansing the bowels of matter which has been in the system a long time and which other less effective means have been unable to dislodge. It is often astonishing the great amount of matter Adierika draws from the intestinal canal—even right after a natural movement. It sometimes brings out unsuspected quantities of additional matter. Many times it brings out much GAS, thus relieving pressure in the abdomen. Adierika is especially valuable when PROMPT action is necessary or to encourage the elimination of metabolic poisons through the bowel.

In slight disorders such as occasional constipation or gas on the stomach and headache (when due to bowel function), a single spoonful of Adierika often produces surprising and gratifying results. In cases of obstinate constipation or stomach trouble, if Adierika does not bring relief in 24 to 36 hours the advice of a reputable physician should be secured.

Reports from Physicians

"I congratulate you on the good effect from Adierika since I prescribed it." (Signed) Dr. L. Langlois.

"Adierika is the best in my entire 37 years' experience." (Signed) Dr. G. Eggers.

"I prescribed Adierika with highly satisfactory results." (Signed) Dr. A. C. C. (Name given on request.)

"I can't get along without Adierika." (Signed) Dr. W. H. Bernhart.

J. E. Duckett (a user of Adierika) writes: "After taking Adierika I feel better than for 20 years. I haven't language to express the impurities eliminated from my system."

Adierika is a big surprise to people who have used only ordinary bowel and stomach medicines because of its REAL and QUICK action. Sold in Lowell by Green's Drug Store and by leading druggists everywhere.—Adv.

COSTUME PARTY

Employees of the Hub Hosiery Company conducted a costume party in C.C.A. hall, Middle street, Wednesday evening, which was attended by several hundred young people. General dancing was enjoyed during the evening and several novelty dances were put on which were very entertaining. Refreshments were served during the termination. The committee in charge of the event follows: Emilie Trudel, general manager; Fred Boudreau, assistant general manager; Joseph Carpenter, floor director; Allen Traversy, assistant floor director; Eugene Douvilla, treasurer; and Gertrude Beauchesse, chief aid. The aids were Oscar Palsch and the Misses Rose Christman, Margaret Blais, Marie April, Reginald Isabelle and Corinne Coulombe.

Will the Rich, Red Blood Rush Back?

PRESS the flesh firmly between hand and thumb. Now watch how long does it take the blood to come back? Unless it is practically instantaneous in its return, Anemia—blood starvation—is indicated.

You cannot have energy and vitality unless your blood contains the iron and manganese content that Gude's Pepto-Mangan alone can supply.

For thirty-two years thousands of physicians have seen thousands of patients regain health and strength by the daily use of Gude's Pepto-Mangan. The blood stimulates its energizing properties and restores the latent power to every cell of the body.

Your druggist now has Gude's Pepto-Mangan in liquid or tablet form.

Gude's
Pepto-Mangan
Tonic and Blood EnricherSAYS KIDNEYS CLOG
AND NEED FLUSHING

Drink Water Freely and Often.
Also Take Salts if Back Hurts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and move the body's urinous waste to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system; so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv.

Fatal Auto Accident on Lawrence Road

gino of 127 Haverhill street, Lawrence; Tony Amore, 70 Elm street, Lawrence; Victor Conelli, 51 Essex street, Lawrence; Morris Deniano of 46 Common street, Lawrence, and John Carra of 157 Newburyport street, Lawrence. They all received numerous cuts and abrasions.
The accident was investigated by Sergt. Frank Maloney of the local police, who reports that upon his arrival he found the Lightman machine locked with the Lawrence machine on the side of the road opposite to that on which it was proceeding prior to the accident. He questioned Dr. Lightman who said he was driving the car at a moderate rate of speed and became blinded by the headlights of the other car.

DR. PERCY LIGHTMAN

The driver of the Lawrence car, Mr. Fischell, could give no information as to the cause of the accident and said he was proceeding towards Lawrence at an ordinary speed and was on his own side of the road.
The accident occurred at the junction of the new and old Lowell-Lawrence boulevards near the street railway car barns. The Lawrence-owned car, a large Hudson sedan, was proceeding towards Lawrence and the Lightman car was bound for Lowell. It is believed that one of the cars was on the wrong side of the traveled way and collided head-on with the other. Both machines were badly wrecked by the impact, the Lightman machine being practically demolished.
At police headquarters this noon, Deputy Superintendent Hugh Downey said that an arrest or arrests would probably be made as soon as the injured, still in the hospital, are able to be questioned concerning details of the collision.

ONLY ONE TERM

It Eliminates Politics From the Mayor's Office—It Prevents the Building of a Dangerous Political Machine

BRADEN

One Term Only

MY OPPONENT INSINUATES that a man who runs on a one-term platform cannot be trusted, although all the objections he raises against a single term apply equally to the second term of a candidate who goes out of office.

I REPUDIATE his insinuations as false, unjust and unwarranted.

HIS PUBLICITY BUREAU knows that the worst evil in the government of American cities today is, that as soon as politicians are elected, they begin to use the resources of the city to entrench themselves in office so that they can DEFY THE PEOPLE.

THE ONE TERM official needs no political machine.

HE DOES NOT NEED to replace efficient public officials by his own POLITICAL TOOLS.

HE DOES NOT NEED to have the heads of departments and many of the subordinates spending the time they should devote to the city's service in electioneering for his reelection.

HE DOES NOT NEED to sacrifice the city's interests or her good name to his own political fortunes.

IT IS in order that I may give full and untrammelled service to the city that I have adopted the ONE TERM idea.

IT WAS FOR THE SAME REASON that the legislature, at the request of Mayor Peters, limited the Mayor of Boston to a single term. What is good for Boston is equally good for Lowell. Politics is the same in both cities.

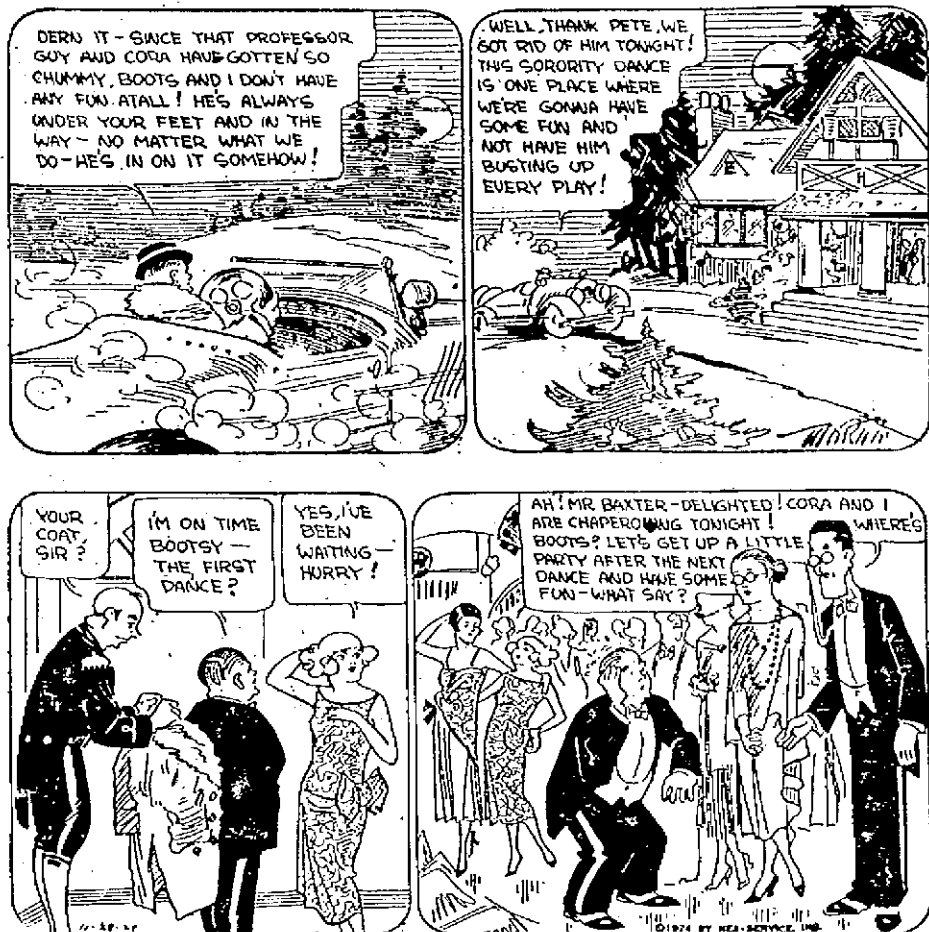

IF ELECTED, I will be a faithful, fearless servant of the people—NOT A FIGUREHEAD, wholly dependent upon a designing coterie of hungry politicians.

MOREOVER, When I am elected, I will not shirk responsibility when any department breaks down, nor when it appears that the liquor laws are not being strictly enforced.

AS MAYOR FOR A SINGLE TERM I will drive politics from the mayor's office, so that I can give my best efforts to the interests of the city instead of following the usual custom of subordinating those interests to the work of seeking re-election.

THOMAS H. BRADEN,
329 Wilder Street.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

(By the Theatre's Own Press Agent.)

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The title, "The Spirit of the U.S.A.," this superbly dramatic photoplay now on view at the Merrimack Square Theatre, where it is playing for the week-end, "The Spirit of the U.S.A.," is the vital spark that animates national life. That glows in the bosom of every true patriot. The story deals in terms of powerful human drama with a phase of American life with which most of us are familiar—that period of turmoil and stress just preceding America's entrance into the World War, and thereafter when our gallant doughboys were fighting the battle of civilization in the shambles overseas. Johnnie Walker and Mary Carr, stars of "Over the Hill," play together in this production for the first time since their memorable work in the previous classic.

Feature No. 2 is "Ladies to Board," starring Tom Mix in an enjoyable combination of comedy and farce. The story recites the experiences of a hard-boiled cowpuncher who inherits an old ladies' home with all its attendant tricks and fortunes—good and bad.

The latest episode of "Into the Net."

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE
Don't miss the big speedy, peppy show at the B. F. Keith Theatre, this week, which is headed by that most engaging of acts, "Broadway Dreams." Lahr and Meredee also contribute a specially contrived laughing turn, and "The King" are entrancing with their comedy. The rest of the show is right up to the mark. It consists of "Rose & Thorne," in the comedy, "Sold Frenchie & Hume," in smart comedy, and "Canary Opera," which makes a great appeal to bird lovers. The picture is a sure ten-strike. It is "The Beloved Brute."

LOWELL'S JEWEL
There's a brand new show at the Jewel today and it's a dandy. The main feature is "Code of the West," a red-blooded Western drama with a big cast that includes Allee Calhoun and John Powers. It tells of the West where a code is adopted among the men, a code of a "square deal" and where a gun is the law. The first episode of the super-sensational "Dangerous Path" as well as a clever comedy and New Zealand. Of course.

the thrilling chapter play and the International News round out an excellent bill.

LOWELL'S HIAWATO
Speedy action-epic melodrama, these are the elements of which melodrama are made. But every audience knows that when the name of Lincoln J. Carter is flashed on the screen as the author of the script, they are about to see a super-melodrama. "The Cyclone Rider," a William Fox production that is now playing at Lowell's Hiawato is a thrill-drama.

James Kent, a good-looking hero, swings into the picture on a derrick beam hundreds of feet above the solid ground. Later he appears in his mother's kitchen, helping with the dishes, all of which proves that he is a "big, strong man but gentle." Incidentally he is absent-minded for he leaves the house, theatre-bound, with his apron on, and forgets he is wearing it until he has walked down the length of the theatre to an aisle seat beside Doris, the lovely heroine. It seems that her escort, and her father's choice for a prospective son-in-law, had lost his ticket which had been picked up by a tramp and sold to Kent. While Trask wrangles with the manager, Doris helps Kent remove his apron, and finds him a more congenial companion than Trask.

There are more thrills in "The Cyclone Rider" than any ten so-called thrillers combined. You'll see an auto race that will make you gasp up out of your seat and yell—you'll be thrilled as the hero swings like a human pendulum from one skyscraper to another. "The Cyclone Rider" is with out any doubt the greatest melodramatic thriller ever made, and whatever you do, don't miss it!

Van, Patheba and Dorothy Revis in "The Other Kind of Love," "The Telephone Girl," by H. C. Wittwer and a News reel are also on the bill.

THE STRAND
Of the many thrills provided by "The Fire Patrol" starring The Strand program for the week-end, none is more tense and gripping than that which shows the valiant little fleet of fire boats brave a terrible storm to save a helpless vessel. This is the first time in the history of films that the fire patrol has been used in a motion picture, and it is not only the originality

WEAK, RUN DOWN AFTER SICKNESS

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Mrs. Dube Well and Strong

E. Hartford, Conn.—"After a severe sickness I was so weak that I could not do my housework, so my mother told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The first loth helped me so much that I took six more bottles and am feeling strong and well. So different from the way I felt before. I am taking the Vegetable Compound right along while nursing. The baby seems to be in good health, and my friends say they see a big change for the better in me."—Mrs. EUGENE DUBE, 69 Woodbridge St., E. Hartford, Connecticut.

The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine to bring back health and strength. Many mothers have found this true, as did Mrs. Dube. There are women everywhere who know by experience the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

of the idea but also the insight it gives into the bravery of the gallant men who give their lives to save others. It's a truly gripping scene and one that will surely interest all patrons.

The daily habitat of the Parisian Apache, world-notorious because of their vicious criminal instincts, is the scene of some of the thrilling adventures of Mary Philbin in "The Rose of Paris." The story of a girl who escapes the fate of the majority who venture into the underworld of the French capital. In addition to the above features that characterize the Strand program for the last part of the week, there will be comedy and variety.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE
Only three more performances remain of "The Old Homestead" at the Lowell Opera House, this great Thanksgiving week attraction having proved one of the most popular hits of the season. The work of Gerald Rowan as Jack the Tramp, of Mr. Wilmer Walter as Josh Whitcomb and of Miss Lillian Desmond as Ricketty Ann is outstanding. Jack West, Miss Vesale Farrell, Miss Helen Aubrey, Harry Fischer and Miss Faith Avery are also seen to advantage. Phone 7610 to reserve seats.

A PRINCE THERE WAS
This great George M. Cohan show will be the offering of the Stanley James Stock Players at the Lowell Opera House all of next week. Cohan shows seem to have struck a popular chord in Lowell and Mr. Stanley James is now negotiating to bring on here "The Forty Minutes From Broadway" and other hits by the versatile comedian.

"Buddies" is announced as the bill to follow "A Prince There Was" after that Miss Gracie Emmett, great Irish comedienne, will come here with her famous skit, "Mrs. Murphy's Second Husband."

Seats are in big demand and war-folk phone early and make reservations. Better still, be on the season

SERVICES IN LOCAL PROTESTANT CHURCHES

Protestant churches throughout the city observed Thanksgiving Day both with religious services and in some cases with appropriate festivals. There were union services at the First Universalist church in the morning, the speaker being Rev. G. D. Fagan, pastor of the First Baptist church. Rev. Harold Haynes presided at this service and Rev. Louis E. Shields offered prayer. Other pastors taking part in this service of prayer, sermon and Thanksgiving were Rev. John T. Ullor and Rev. William B. Fithill, D.D. Impressive religious services featured the annual Thanksgiving Day exercises conducted in St. Anne's church yesterday morning. Rev. Appleton Granville conducting. There was a communion service at 8 a. m. and morning prayer at 10.30, with a short sermon by the rector.

The "Thanksgiving note" was emphasized during the second service by the use of the Benediction, the general Thanksgiving and the Thanksgiving hymns of the Prayer Book. The hymn "God Bless Our Native Land," was also sung. The offering was devoted to the fund for providing dinners for poor families.

OUNCE OF MUSIC WORTH POUND OF PILLS

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—If you are suffering from growing personality, try a scherzo.
For hardening of the heartiness take a hypodermic injection of melody.
When your temper tempers your

ACIDS IN STOMACH
CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain.
How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not, as some believe, to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sauer causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try taking aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion. Adv.

When you are ill in the future, don't be surprised if your doctor writes you a prescription like this: "One Valer Caprice mixed with one Hungarian Rhapsody followed with a tincture of Polonaise Militaire. Heaping tablespoonful three times a day."
Or, according to his diagnosis, one like this: "Two fluid ounces of 'The Bee's Knees,' five and a half drams of 'Then High-Brown Blues' with three grains of 'Mummys' Little Alabama Count.' To be taken in half a glass of water after meals."
Musical Therapeutics is the latest science. A. G. Gulbransen of Chicago, its pioneer apostle, says music is a panacea for mental ailments and an effective remedy for many bodily maladies.
"An ounce of music is worth a pound of pills," said Mr. Gulbransen, who is the world's largest piano manufacturer and attributes his health, wealth and happiness to music. "There is a whole pharmacopoeia of curative medicine in a song. Melody lifts one out of one's self and out of sickness. It is psychological epson salts. It purges the mind and stimulates and revivifies the physical functions. It is as necessary to the home as hygiene. The registered pianist is on a par with the registered pharmacist as an agent of health. A doctor should carry a roll of music and a roll of bandages in the same case. Music is a good medicine. It cures when all drugs fail."

48 CENTRAL STREET

Y. M. C. I. SHOW A BIG SUCCESS

"Under the Spotlight, '24" is Happy Vehicle For Display of Talents

Enthusiastically Greeted at Auditorium Last Night—
To Be Repeated Tonight

Amidst a splash of brilliancy and to the symphony strains of the latest songs and dance arrangements, "Under the Spotlight, '24" was presented before a captivated audience in Memorial minga, Anna Cavanaugh, Stella Maughan, Catherine O'Connor and Margaret Clancy, brings back memories of other days and gives a well-placed foreign atmosphere to the opening scene. Attired in gowns of silk brocade blue and old rose, the young girls offer numerous songs and are lauded by the end men and entire chorus. "Y.M.C.I. Here We Come," ensemble number auspiciously announces the general excellence of the program

and is a stirring tribute to the "Alma Mater," as it were, arranged to the tune of "Nightingale."

Joseph Cravenstein (Craven) and William Kellyburg (Kelly) as Jewish vendors, interrupt the program in its opening number to advertise their wares and upon being offered a sum of money by Thomas J. O'Donnell, interlocutor, agreed to entertain the audience. Their song, "Good-bye, Becky Cohen," with ensemble chorus, is one of the many features on the program.
End men, Frank McCarthy, Edward
Cawley, Frank O'Neill, Patrick Maguire, William Collins and Frank Lynch prove their worth and provoke much hilarity. The skit of End Man McCarthy given at the expense of Brother "Eddie" Cawley are given in a well-directed yet sufficiently disguised manner, which, however, leaves
the audience in doubt as to the "different" time Eddie will listen to Saturday. In vocal numbers, the end men were very entertaining and Frank O'Neill's rendition of "Red Hot Mamma" brought rounds of applause which were duly recognized with an encore.
"Doodle Doo Doo," by Edward Cawley, may well be termed the favorite number. Encores again and again.
Mr. Cawley kept his audience keyed to the action as he interpreted the very popular melody
"Nobody Knows What It's All About,"
by Frank McCarthy is also a hummer and in the end, the singer convinces his listeners that "no one knows what it is all about" by cleverly arranging his voice in their midst yet entertaining rendition proved most popular. "Hard Hearted Hannah," by Patrick Maguire and "Dixie's Favorite Son," by William Collins, are also offered as end songs.

Miss Sadie Sheehan, popular local comedian interprets "Memory Lane" in pleasing voice while Raymond Kelly tenor, pleases with "West of the Great Divide," and "I Wonder What's Become of Sally."

Rosa Adams McDermott, soprano, in the selected number "If Love Were All," graciously responded to encores
last evening.
The character song "Pretty Peggy," with Miss Alice Dancy soloist, assisted by the dancing ponies, Misses Bertha Choquette, Gladys Droney, Marion Mullen, Sadie Flanagan, Evelyn Moran, Madeline McLaughlin and Annabelle Maughan is most entertaining, the

"ponies" in gowns of back and gold cloth, greatly enhancing the sketch as they prance daintily across the stage.
Andrew McCarthy, baritone, was most enthusiastically welcomed last evening and entertained with "Driftwood," and "Will She Come From the East,"
assisted by the chorus.
Miss Dorothy Nolan in "Charlie My Boy," assisted by the front line girls is indeed a charming "boy" and her number last evening was well received.
Miss Colla Grove in a ballet number was one of the many peering offerings and the young dancer's interpretation of the more difficult toe dances was given with alacrity and precision found only in the accomplished dancer.
The sketch "Christmas Morning," with Charles Keyes as the "down and outer," whose vain efforts to get arrested are foiled by a "cop," a bum, and a girl and a son-in-law in order of appearance, is most hilarious. An hellfire in the person of Miss Margaret Montague, however, in her feigned generosity passes "Charlie" counterfeited bills and in ignorance he presents them to the "cop," Bob Hart, who arrests him for handling counterfeit money.

SADIE SHEEHAN

The second part of the program offers various arrangements of dance numbers and is most colorful and entertaining. "The Dances of the Ponies," "A Society of Follies," "Hello the Mason and Dixon Line," "Cake Eaters and Flappers," "In Hickville," "The Strutters," and "Pierrots' Frolic" are all most pleasing and present a galaxy of color and dance steps. "In Hickville," may be termed the "hit of the evening," and to attempt to describe the offering of the village vamps and the village shiks would leave too little to the performers to interpret. This sketch alone is well worth the price

of admission.
Jackie Payne, boy singer, made his debut in the world of song last evening when he entertained with vocal numbers. A "favor" Jackie was sincerely applauded and proved by his songs that he will soon have a place among Lowell's popular talent.
The grand finale, with patiotte tugs is one of the most brilliant sketches offered locally for some time.
With Miss Sadie Sheehan, soloist, and Miss Alice Dancy, leader, this number is given with military grandeur as the corps, dressed in suits of red and gray, execute "Pompier's March," "Gay Movement," "America," "Scotland, Italy,
England, France and Ireland are all united in turn and execute character dances, Columbia and Uncle Sam add the finishing touches to the tableau which is verily a sea of colors.
The flags of the various nations represented being prettily arranged in a novel manner and adding greatly to the general beauty of the scene.

PENNSYLVANIA'S SENSATIONAL VICTORY HOLIDAY FEATURE

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press) Pennsylvania's sensational victory over Cornell, lifting the Quakers to the top of the college football heights with only Yale and Dartmouth to dispute their 1924 title claims, occurred on one of the most exciting and the most stirring Thanksgiving day football programs on record.

The game, the last of the season for most of the major teams throughout the country, was a contest of the knuckled Rutgers out of the eastern championship race.

The decisiveness of Pennsylvania's 20-7 victory over Cornell in 1924 was a surprise, for the Quakers had been favorites, while Pittsburgh upset Penn State 21 to 3 and West Virginia defeated Princeton 20 to 0. The Quakers' overwhelming Washington and Jefferson 27 to 7, in two other contests involving

The middle west grabbed all of the holiday's outstanding intersectional honors with four triumphs that included an international victory when Detroit university defeated Toronto university in a game played under national and international basketball rules. The east bowed to middle western rivals in two games when Western Reserve triumphed Tufts at Cleveland, while Marquette swamped Vermont at Milwaukee. Nobreaks galloped at far west when the Aggies downed the Oregon Aggies in a game at Lincoln.

Among feats of individual brilliance McBride, Syracuse backfield star clinched his reputation as the greatest field goal kicker in the east when he shot three boos through the end zone in the fourth quarter. He gave the Orange a 9-6 victory over Columbia in a thrilling game at New York.

Gidiron Gossip

Lowell's play was superior to Lawrence's in the first half. The red and gray had everything in her favor, including the break, but that march down the field to the one yard stalling the first quarter sapped the energy of Lowell's backs.

The Lowell players were easy to identify because of the large numerals on the backs of their jerseys. The Lawrence players were not numbered.

An airplane circled over the field just prior to the kickoff.

John Giblin made a big hit with his high school band. During intermission, the band marched around the field, playing D.E.S. songs. The Arlington Mills band accompanied the Lawrence or South Common High School, etc., championship game Sunday. The Geds having volunteered to submit their statistics before the game. After this clash, the Subs will devote their attention to basketball.

Seven Lawrence cheer leaders planked themselves in front of the press bench. Lowell had seven leaders also, but on the opposite side of

The Lowell team entered the play-stead at 10.12 amid ringing cheers.
Lawrence was out at 10.05.

Lawrence was the victim of the first penalty. It was one of 15 yards and came in the opening stanza for illegal use of hands.

Lawrence lost two yards in the first period on a delayed pass, and Lowell took the ball on downs.

Lowell was penalized three times in the first period for off-side play, making necessary the calling of that familiar signal: "Punt formation, Baron back!"

Haphey's punts were better than Baron's as a rule, but Baron carried the ball so often and so well that his kicking was excusable.

Lowell-rooters were unanimous in contending that Lowell should have won the game by three touchdowns to one.

Before the Butter-Cadet game, the St. Peter's challenged the winner. As the Cadets won, it is now probable that they will play the St. Peter's for final honors. St. Peter's have a 6-6 tion against the Butlers in their season's record.

Louercraft and Britton, Butler cripples, sat on their team's bench during

The game was not as thrilling as some other encounters between these two teams.

The two McMahon's, Caddy and Lee, were conspicuous in their play.

The final period was played in the dark. It was hard work for the play-

It is almost a certainty that the O.M.I. Cadets and the St. Peter's Cadets will meet in a post-season game.

With the Lowell-Lawrence and Cadet-Butler games now passed into history, local fans may well turn their attention to the big game due to be staged on the First street oval next Sunday afternoon between the Kenwood Rovers and the Centralville Ponies.

O. M. I. Cadets Win Over Butlers — Murray Defeats Woods in Thrilling Bout

FRANKIE MURRAY DEFEATS WEE WILLIE WOODS IN GREAT BOUT

Philadelphian Gives Spectacular Exhibition in Moody Club Holiday Feature—Woods Fights Desperately to Get Over Famous Haymaker

Not in years have Lowell fans witnessed such a spectacular battle within the ropes as that uncovered by Frankie Murray of Philadelphia and Wee Willie Woods of Scotland in the Moody club holiday feature at the Crescent rink last night. Murray arrived and was awarded the decision, but Woods, the Philadelphia who has boxed two bouts with Pancho Villa, employ all his class and speed to land the verdict.

Murray's exhibition was without doubt one of the greatest demonstrations of science, skill and generalship ever witnessed in Crescent rink. He's a minor workman, one who knows the game thoroughly, one who is not only quick to see and take an advantage, but one who is able to anticipate the movements of his opponent.

Only for his superior knowledge of the art of boxing, Murray might have shared the fate of many other opponents of Woods. The Scottish champion is a terrific fighter, one who takes blows and sheds them like water, in the hope of getting one over. He never tried harder to knock out a man than he did last night. Murray's lightning-like speed and his wide assortment of blows had the Scotch law baffled and furious. He tore at the Philadelphia after every exchange, swinging wicked punches, with every ounce of energy in his little body, and if one of them ever connected Murray would have landed in the laps of ring-siders.

But the man who held his own with Villa took no chances, and he was just a step away from victory every time the wild and vicious Willie launched his projectiles. Murray employed a one-two combination that was perfectly executed. He also had an impregnable defense when on the inside. He would score and then tie up the Scotchman. He would step out of a clinch, only to launch back with drove Woods into the ropes under a fusillade of fists. Here they were battering away when the final bell sounded. The crowd was in an uproar. It was a finish that will not soon be forgotten by the fans.

In the semi-final that Stevenson of Lawrence added another K. O. to his list, when he stopped the flashy Joe Jarvin, the Filipino, who only a few months ago battled Young Dencle a ten round whitewash in Boston. Stevenson stopped Jarvin in the third with a blow to the solar plexus.

Bob Brown, one of Punch Mayo's champions, won over Johnny McBride of Lawrence on a technical knockout in the fifth round, a sponge from McBride's corner terminating activities after a spirited number.

The first preliminary Maurice Desprez won over Al Titeam in the third round. It was announced that Sammy Marce, lightweight champion of Canada and Willie Gradwell of Somerset, will meet in the main event next week.

At Salem yesterday afternoon, Benny Nelson of Lowell just a hairline decision to Leo Berry of Peabody in one of the fastest eight round bouts ever witnessed in the Witch City. So well satisfied were the fans and the promoters with the battle that the pair were immediately re-matched.

Phinney Boyle is training daily for his bout with Buddy Clark in Lynn next Monday night. It will mark Phinney's bout in several months and he is anxious to get away to a successful start. Clark is a rugged, hard hitting performer and Boyle is training diligently to perfect a defense to meet the rushing fighter.

Corporal Schwartz, flyweight champion of Uncle Sam's army will invade Montreal, Canada, next Monday to box Clovis (Kid) Durand for a round at the Olympic A. A.

Gus Wilson, trainer of Georges Carpentier has called a sparring session for three bouts in Paris, France. The intended opponents are Billy (Kid) Champion 112 pounder of the British Isles, and Georges Carpentier, champion of Belgium.

SOCCER GAMES

At Forge Village yesterday, the Lowell Y.M.C.A. soccer team defeated the Worcester team in an Industrial League game, 5 to 1, and Abbot Juvies won from Quincy Rangers, 2 to 1. In an exhibition game at Worcester, the National League Abbits defeated the Worcester Whittals by a 4 to 1 score.

O. M. I. CADETS DEFEAT BUTLERS IN ANNUAL TITLE CLASH

Soldiers Get Breaks and Win By 6-0 Score—8000 Spectators Witness Close Battle—St. Peter's Cadets Challenge Winners

Taking advantage of the several minutes before the whistle announced the conclusion of the first half, the Cadets rushed to the goal line. The second half opened with Whitley kicking off to the Cadets rushing tactics.

Then Dan O'Connor let go his fatal kicking off to D. O'Connor, who ran back the punt seven yards before being downed. Whitley dashed John O'Connor after a three-yard gain, which was of the game coming in the third period of play. When they allowed Curran to fall on the sphere, it was the beginning of the end, as narrated in the touchdown episode in the second paragraph of this narrative. "Red" Conley blocked O'Connor's attempt for the point after touchdown and score stood at 6 to 0.

Exchange of Punt

Following the touchdown, O'Connor kicked to O'Hare, who snapped the ball to Egan for an eight-yard runback, where it was returned to the Cadets. Sick Neary sifted through left tackle for six yards, but the Cadets surmounted the ball on downs, and the Butlers eased up with their famous spread formation. Unsuccessful in this method of attack, Chase punted. O'Connor returned the punt about 25 yards off his back kick of the day. A long spiral. It was the first time the Cadets gained on the exchange of punts. Chase took the ball and was downed by Bill Brosnan, and the Butlers opened up with a forward pass to Egan, good for six yards. A couple of ill-aimed punts for good gains indicated that the Butlers were going strong toward the close of this period, and then the fourth and final chapter was reached. It was first down for the Butlers and on yards to go. Chase made four on and a forward pass. After the third down, Egan punted to the Cadet 20-yard stripe. O'Connor decided to kick but immediately his punter was blocked, but Lemoine recovered. McGlinchey went into the Cadet backfield.

ARMY AND NAVY MEET TOMORROW

Annual Football Clash Between Rival Military and Navy Academies

Hundreds of Visitors Arrive For Game—Pres. Coolidge to Attend

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 28.—The annual clash between the rival elevens representing the United States Military and Naval Academies today claimed the almost undivided attention of Baltimoreans and the hundreds of visitors already arriving in the city for the contest tomorrow in the municipal stadium.

The West Point squad with a personnel of 52, including coaches, trainers and attendants, reached the scene of action yesterday and billeted last night at Johns Hopkins University, on whose field a short workout was held this morning.

Another practice session, the last one before the game, is scheduled for the stadium this afternoon. To acquaint the players with field and conditions. Both workouts will be held in secret, with guards posted to exclude the curious.

The Navy team will not try the stadium gridiron before the game, but will complete its preparation at Annapolis. Declaring his team to be in pink of condition, and able to win on any field, Coach "Red" Fawcett said he believed a workout here unnecessary.

The Middles, however, are not entirely unacquainted with Saturday field of battle, for the same field was the scene of their clash with Princeton last year.

Final touches have been given to plans for a luncheon to President and Mrs. Coolidge preceding the game. The president, who is expected to arrive about noon, is expected to attend a dinner afterward at the Hotel Belvidere.

Score: Cadets 5, Butlers 0. Touchdowns: Troville. Officials: Fleming, referee; Kennedy, umpire; Piorotti, field judge. Periods: four 12-minute periods.

Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions?
Do you know why ointments do not give you quick and lasting relief?
Why cutting and operations fail?
Do you know the cause of piles is internal?
That there is a stagnation of blood in the lower bowel?
Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy discovered by Dr. Leonard and known as HEM-ROID, now sold by Green's drug store and druggists generally, that is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the internal cause, by freeing blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for cure, safe and lasting relief to thousands of pile sick sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation. There is no reason why it should not do the same for you. —Adv.

SONG OF HOPE

While drifting 150 miles in an open boat off the Virginia Capes, Miss Kathleen T. Woodworth, 18, of Rockport, Mass., kept her six shipwrecked companions encouraged by singing to them.

IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Fifth avenue, America's most famous Main Street, is celebrating its 100th anniversary. Fifth avenue is the street on which New York holds its parades. It is the street on which women who "have nothing to wear" go shopping. It is the street on which all the George

TABLETS

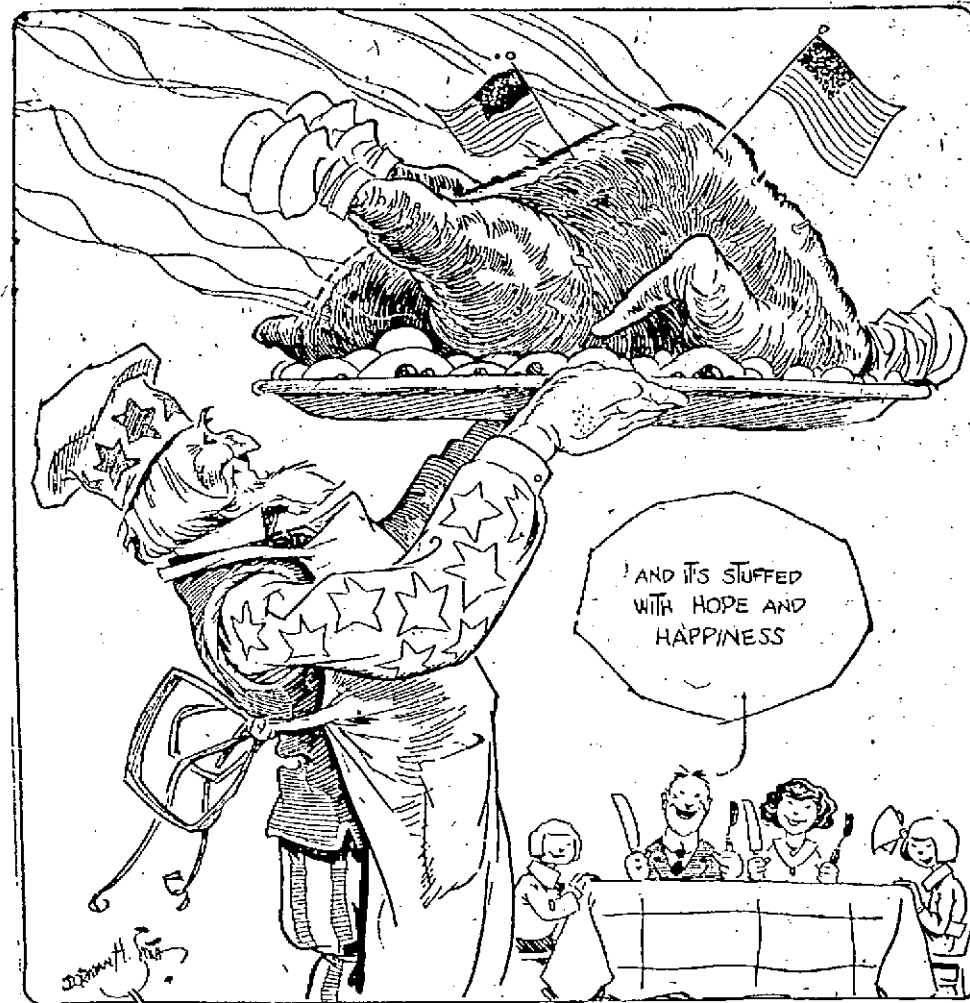

Made With Essential Oils FOR

Politicians, Auctioneers, Clergymen, Lecturers, Singers

Anyone who speaks or sings in public whose voice is apt to grow husky or weak from the strain, will find that one Oxidaze tablet slowly dissolved in the mouth before speaking or singing will make a world of difference. The voice stays strong and clear and natural even during an unusual strain. Thousands of people have testified to the remarkable value of these pure essential oil tablets, which bring such quick relief in cases of hoarseness, loss of voice, soreness, or tickling in throat, bronchitis, bronchial irritation, bronchial asthma, coughs, colds, and as a preventative against grippe, influenza and pneumonia.

One small inexpensive package of "Oxidaze" tablets will quickly prove the value of pure essential oil in cases of this kind. If they are always kept in the house for use in case of an emergency, they may save you many days of serious illness or discomfort. Any good druggist, including Green's Drug Store and Liggett's, can supply you. —Adv.

Most of All We're Thankful for Our Chef

F. Babbitts of Gotham hold forth at cornerstone layings and monument unveilings.

There is more window shopping done on Fifth avenue than on any two streets in the world. The ladies, bless 'em, get ideas for dresses, cloaks and hats from Fifth avenue windows for garments made at home or bought in cheaper stores.

Fifth avenue, too, is the nation's greatest Peacock alley. On Easter Sunday poor working girls, who have saved for months to buy fine feathers, parade with the richest families in America—and the casual passerby can't tell the difference between them.

I believe there are more styles of architecture on Fifth avenue than are to be seen on any other street in the country. Every aspiring architectural student should spend several weeks, at least, riding up and down the avenue.

The most significant thing about Fifth avenue, it seems to me, is that it is alien to all the rest of New York. While it is just an overgrown Main Street is still the most cosmopolitan of all New York thoroughfares. Yet it doesn't represent New York's mad rush as much as Broadway nor as much as Wall Street. Nor does it represent the great human drama of old races achieving new life in a new country, as the Bowery and other East side streets do.

Fifth avenue belongs to the country at large more than to New York.

It is the general belief that most of New York's suicides are girls. The majority of them are men, and quite a number of them married men whose homes have been disrupted. In six months there were six suicides in West 25th street, between Eighth and Ninth avenues. One was a woman.

DINNERS PROVIDED BY SALVATION ARMY

Many needy Lowell families were provided with Thanksgiving dinners yesterday, by the local branch of the Salvation Army. Ensign Farrar announced that more than 100 baskets, each containing a chicken averaging in weight about five pounds, bread, potatoes, onions, turnips, peas, milk, jam, corn flakes, coffee, tea and sugar, were distributed to the most deserving by the army relief workers.

The army was unable to respond to all appeals received from poor families, because the street kettle fund collections this year were very small as compared with former campaign receipts.

Dr. Howard always recommended Oxidaze for Coughs, Colds, Br. Asthma

Years of study and observation convinced him it would safely, quickly and surely stop a bad cough and give instant relief in Bronchial Asthma. Stoney back it, it fails. Guaranteed harmless. All druggists, including Green's Drug Store and Liggett's, —Adv.

COMMON SENSE

When a merchant advertises his wares in a newspaper, he does not appeal to the paper, but to its readers. He solicits the patronage of those readers whether he agrees with the policy of the paper or not. To refrain from advertising in a paper of wide circulation simply because he does not agree with the editor on all public questions, is not using common sense. It is a form of business suicide. It has sent many short-sighted business men into bankruptcy. A dealer might as well put a sign over his store notifying all who do not think as he does that he does not want their patronage. Readers of newspaper advertisements know when and where their patronage is welcome.

DO YOUR GUMS BLEED When Brushed?

IF SO—Go to the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of "BAPALINE LOTION". Use it three times a day as a mouth wash or on tooth brush. You will see and feel the results from the very first application. "BAPALINE LOTION" is a new formula that hardens sore, bleeding gums, checks pyorrhea, preserves and tightens loose teeth and purifies the breath.

WEARERS OF ARTIFICIAL TEETH, CROWNS AND BRIDGEWORK will enjoy the true comfort of cleanliness and sweet breath from the daily use of "BAPALINE".

THE DAILY USE OF "BAPALINE" ON THE TOOTH BRUSH ENCOURAGES A GOOD HABIT.

SO TOM TUCKER HAD FIVE SANDWICHES, AND JACK HORNER HAD THREE PIECES OF FRUIT CAKE.

All the Mother Goose people on Pippin Hill were so interested in the Riddle Lady's riddle that nobody had moved secretly.

But after awhile Mrs. John insisted on serving tea in the orchard.

"It's quite correct to have tea at five, you know," she said, "and it will give your brains a rest."

So Tom Tucker had five sandwiches, and Jack Horner had three pieces of fruit cake, and Miss Muffet had ever so many cups of tea, and everybody had a fine time.

The Riddle Lady was soon rested and she got ready to ask the next riddle.

"The next one to rhyme," asked Nancy.

"I can make it either way," said the Riddle Lady.

"There is a chap who bothers us," a teasing, freezing fellow.

He comes late in the autumn and turns the leaves all yellow.

Shakes sugar on the pumpkin, and sugar on the grape.

But leaves the corn and all the flowers in dreadful shape.

He ruins all the tiny leaves of the golden-rod and phlox.

And turns all the tiny leaves of the poplar into little.

He jumps upon the cat-tails all sleek in velvet brown.

And silts their jackets up the back and muzzles them with down.

He ruins all the tiny leaves of the poplar into little.

He jumps upon the cat-tails all sleek in velvet brown.

And silts their jackets up the back and muzzles them with down.

He ruins all the tiny leaves of the poplar into little.

He jumps upon the cat-tails all sleek in velvet brown.

And silts their jackets up the back and muzzles them with down.

He ruins all the tiny leaves of the poplar into little.

He jumps upon the cat-tails all sleek in velvet brown.

And silts their jackets up the back and muzzles them with down.

He ruins all the tiny leaves of the poplar into little.

He jumps upon the cat-tails all sleek in velvet brown.

Riddle Lady. "I can make it to rhyme or not to rhyme. Whichever you like."

"Let's take an 'H,'" suggested Mrs. John. "I never liked to vote but it seems to be the only way to find out just what people want."

"It's a good idea," said Mrs. Spratt. "Let's vote."

So Nancy and Nick took small pieces of paper and passed around to all the people on Pippin Hill and they wrote on them "yes" or "no" according to their views.

The year had it, so the Riddle Lady made her next riddle in rhyme.

"It is far not very hard," said she. "It is far not very hard, a cross-word puzzle, at least."

So she began:

"There is a chap who bothers us," a teasing, freezing fellow.

He comes late in the autumn and turns the leaves all yellow.

Shakes sugar on the pumpkin, and sugar on the grape.

But leaves the corn and all the flowers in dreadful shape.

He ruins all the tiny leaves of the golden-rod and phlox.

And turns all the tiny leaves of the poplar into little.

He jumps upon the cat-tails all sleek in velvet brown.

And silts their jackets up the back and muzzles them with down.

He ruins all the tiny leaves of the poplar into little.

He jumps upon the cat-tails all sleek in velvet brown.

And silts their jackets up the back and muzzles them with down.

He ruins all the tiny leaves of the poplar into little.

He jumps upon the cat-tails all sleek in velvet brown.

And silts their jackets up the back and muzzles them with down.

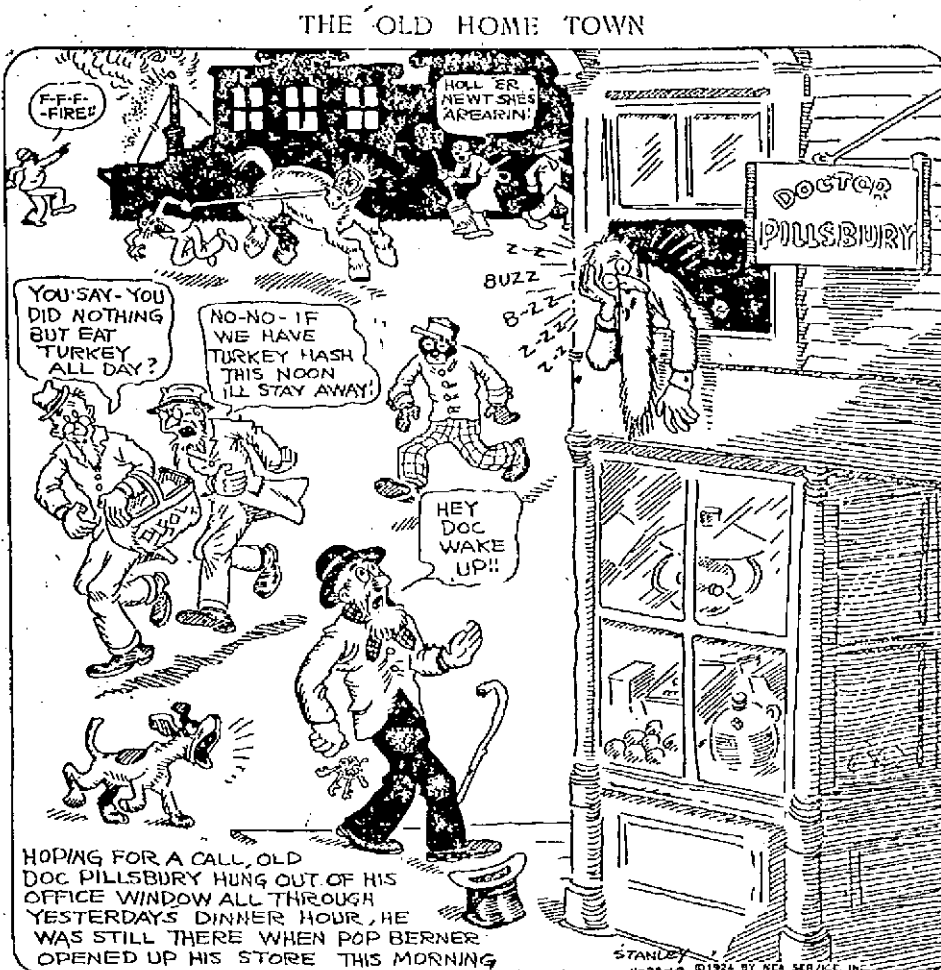

He ruins all the tiny leaves of the poplar into little.

He jumps upon the cat-tails all sleek in velvet brown.

And silts their jackets up the back and muzzles them with down.

He ruins all the tiny leaves of the poplar into little.

He jumps upon the cat-tails all sleek in velvet brown.

THANKSGIVING AT CHILDREN'S HOME. Miss Ellen O'Leary's Thanksgiving Day, celebration at the Children's Home in Boston square, was a big success. Gifts from loving friends and regular yearly givers of money and food, came in generously, and the happy matron desires to thank one and all whose substantial remembrances were received with sincere gratitude.

Charity provided chicken roasted, all kinds of vegetables, pudding, pies, fruit, jellies and ice cream for the children in the Boston square home. The bedtime stories were related at a pretty late hour at Miss O'Leary's home, last night.

DRASTIC CHANGE TO DEAL WITH MOTOR VEHICLE LAW VIOLATORS

State Registrar Goodwin Urges Revolutionary Departure
From Present Method—Wants All Cases Turned Over to Him and Not Courts For Punishment

(Special to The Sun)
BOSTON, Nov. 28.—State Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin, who has done many startling things since he became registrar, took one of the most drastic steps in his career today when he recommended a revolutionary change in the present method of dealing with motor vehicle law violators.

Goodwin, in a word, recommends that motorists guilty of minor violations, instead of being haled into court and fined, have the matter turned over to the registrar for punishment. Revocation or suspension of a motorist's license would be the ultimate of an accumulation of offenses, the registrar says.

"The loss of a license for a few days," says Goodwin, "would stop such violations much quicker than small fines. The imposition of fines is but a slight deterrent while the suspension of a license has a wholesome effect."

The registrar believes that this change in the law will greatly reduce the present congestion in our courts and also materially reduce the work of district attorneys.

Mr. Goodwin's statement follows:

To the Joint Special Committee on Motor Vehicle Regulations:

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit as a supplementary report a drastic and revolutionary departure from the present method of dealing with motor vehicle violations of the law. At the present time there are some 60 motor vehicle offenses for which persons may be haled into court and fined or given a jail sentence. In addition to these, there are many more contained in the various traffic regulations made by cities and towns.

For at least thirty days of the sixty offenses specified in the motor vehicle code and for all of the many offenses provided in municipal regulations, it seems to me absurd to hale violators into court and give them a criminal record. The vast majority of motorist offenses are law-breaking offenses of a rule minor violations are the result of carelessness, thoughtlessness or even ignorance of our multiplicity of laws. I would suggest, therefore, that all penalties be repealed for such minor offenses as not having proper equipment, speeding, not stopping the horn, not slowing down upon approaching an intersection of ways, not having a license or registration certificate on one's person, etc.

In lieu of court proceedings, I suggest that the registrar be authorized to issue orders for the arrest of motor vehicles, on blanks furnished by him, a record of every minor violation being kept within the registrar's office. The registrar should be authorized to deal with the violators to be dealt with by the registrar after a sufficient accumulation of these reports by the registrar or violation of licenses or registrations. Instead of summoning into court all the violators of traffic regulations, the registrar should send their names to the police of the various cities and towns should deal only with persistent violators by sending their names to the registrar. The loss of a license for a few days would stop such violations much quicker than small fines.

LAWRENCE STORE MAN SLASHED BY WOMAN

LAWRENCE, Nov. 28.—Nathan Cohen, who keeps a small dry goods store in Oak street, was badly injured this morning when a woman, said to be Mrs. Incoranta Copell, slashed him with a razor across his face. The woman escaped. According to Cohen the woman had twice asked to be given a bed spread on credit and he refused to grant the request. He said that she then apparently slipped his face. He was found unconscious in his store by customers and the police were notified. The alleged assailant is the mother of several small children.

GOOD WEATHER FOR THANKSGIVING

Lowell's Thanksgiving day observance was blessed with seasonable weather that made it a pleasure to get out of doors. Family gatherings and the honored New England custom of observance, with football games adding a snap and zest and attracting huge crowds.

Several local churches held Thanksgiving services in the morning and in other ways the underlying spirit of the day was brought to the surface in terms of thoughtful acts and good cheer.

Turkeys were plentiful and moderately priced and it is safe to say that the rare, old bird graced more dinner tables than in any other year since war times. Public institutions marked the day for their inmates with special dinner menus and entertainments. In hospitals were not forgotten by those on the outside.

Theatres drew capacity audiences and special entertainments and dances were particularly well patronized.

All in all, the local observance was a judicious mixture of thanksgiving and good fun, a combination that spells happiness.

VIOLATED HIS PAROLE

experiences that Wyman had a gun in his possession, the police chief rounded up George Joseph Kruskowski and Alfred Melanson of the state constabulary. Chief Fred Vinal and officer James Gaskin of the North Chelmsford force, and officers Joseph Riley and Clyde Jordan of Tyngsboro.

Wyman was arrested in 1923 for breaking and entering camps in Westford. At that time he was sentenced to the reformatory at Concord, but was paroled in 1923. His whereabouts remained a mystery to authorities in this vicinity until word was received from an army assigned to Detroit, Michigan, that he had enlisted in the army under the assumed name of James Flanagan. He was detailed to an encampment in California, where his real identity eventually became known. He was then transferred to Fort Hamilton, N. Y., and placed in the guard house on the complaint of the Massachusetts reformatory officials that he had violated the terms of his parole by masquerading under a false name.

While extradition proceedings were being undertaken, Wyman escaped from the detention room of the guard house. That was last May. Shortly after his escape, word was received in this locality that he might be here, and local and suburban police were instructed to be on the lookout for him. Their suspicions were increased when it was learned that he had purchased a shotgun in Lowell a short time ago.

Late last night Chief Pelletier received information in Tyngsboro that Wyman was living alone in a deserted house near a wooded section of Westford road. With the posse on hand, the suspected house was surrounded and in the course of a few minutes an upstairs window was raised and Wyman appeared through the opening. Barging the officers, he threatened to jump from the window, but officer Riley pointed his gun at him and said he would shoot should an attempt at escape be made. With that, Wyman closed the window and disappeared from view.

When he refused to come up and deliver himself to the officers, Pelletier and Kruskowski entered the house and after a thorough search, they discovered their man beneath a bundle of clothing in a compartment downstairs. Kruskowski applied the handcuffs and the capture was complete.

Wyman was brought to the local police station, and this morning he was taken to Dedham Jail by Edmund J. Cheney, state parole officer, and Lt. Martha Maher of the police department.

AUTOS IN COLLISION IN NO. BILLERICA

Automobiles owned by Charles W. Gagnon, 32 Liberty street, Lowell, and Mrs. George K. Higgins, 1318 Beacon street, Brookline, were in collision at 10 o'clock last night near Sprague's bridge on the cement road in North Billerica. Although both machines carried several passengers, there were no personal injuries.

The Gagnon machine, a Buick touring car was extensively damaged, but the Dodge sedan of Mrs. Higgins, escaped with a broken running board and mud guards. A report of the accident says the machines were passing in opposite directions and side-swiped one another.

FIVE MEN INJURED IN AUTO COLLISION

Five men were injured, none seriously, in an automobile collision on the Princeton boulevard near the city line at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and both machines were reduced to junk by the impact.

The injured men, Fred Dean of 14 Gage avenue, lacerations about the head; George Pelkie of 133 Crescent street, multiple lacerations; Manuel Silva of 5 Tilden street, bruises and injuries to the back; Julian Mendes of 18 Coolidge street, bruises; Tony Blansette of 30 Dutton street, bruises. They are all at the Corporation hospital.

Motorcycle Officer Andrew Hunter investigated the accident and reported that an automobile, operated by Geo. Pelkie and in which was riding Fred Dean, was going out the boulevard and when at Gage street attempted to swing into that street. A machine operated by Joseph Aguilar of 5 Bunker Hill avenue was coming towards Lowell at the time and crashed into the Pelkie car as it was broadcasting on the boulevard. The latter car turned turtle, while the Aguilar machine continued for a short distance, crashed into a telephone post and also turned over. Silva, Mendes and Blansette were riding in the machine operated by Aguilar.

Expect Quick Returns On Mayoralty Vote

ed, and if this is done the mayor-elect will be sworn within two hours after the polls close.

A meeting of precinct officers has been called for next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Chairman Hugh C. McKee of the commission said this morning, and the officers will be instructed to make a canvass of the head of each ballot separately and telephone in the vote, but through a misunderstanding or for some other reason, several precincts failed to do this and the result was that the total vote for the candidates at the head of the ticket were not known until the complete vote was counted and returned to the election commission office, which was 22 hours after the closing of the polls in the national and state election.

The polls will be open from 6 a. m. until 6 p. m., as was previously stated, instead of from 8 a. m. until 4 p. m., as was the rule at previous city elections.

A specimen ballot for the election has been printed and contains, in addition to the names of the candidates for mayor, school committee and councilor-at-large, a license question which is as follows:

"Shall licenses be granted for the sale of certain non-intoxicating beverages in this city?"

The candidates and the order in which their names will appear on the official ballot, follow:

For mayor, vote for one:
Thomas H. Braden.
John J. Donovan.

For school committee, two-year term, vote for one:

AT ODDS ON BANKER'S DEATH

Official Opinion Divided as to Whether W. R. Fee Was Slain or Committed Suicide

Coroner's Jury Holds That
He Was Murdered—Police
Chief Holds to Suicide

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., Nov. 28.—Official opinion still divided today as to whether William R. Fee, president of two Southern California banks, was slain or committed suicide. A coroner's jury held that Mr. Fee was slain after his body was found in the San Bernardino mountains last Tuesday, 50 feet from a cabin occupied by Miss Mary Watkins, 28, who said she was an affectionate friend of the banker.

W. H. Halsey, San Gabriel chief of police, today pointed out Fee was a pharmacist in his youth and may have taken some unusual poison. A fraudulent will, which formed the basis of the murder theory, may have been caused by a fall after a self-administered dose, the chief of police pointed out. The finding yesterday of gloves buried in the rear of the cabin occupied by Miss Watkins added new official interest to the case, but she explained she buried the discarded gloves with other rubbish. Miss Watkins previously explained that clothing owned by Mr. Fee found in her cabin was a gift and provided outfitting logs when Miss Watkins and her sister entertained men friends.

Mrs. Fee, widow of the banker, who accompanied him to the mountains last Saturday, testified at the coroner's inquest she had differences with Mr. Fee.

RESUME SEARCH FOR FISH BOAT

Rescue Crews Face Blinding
Snowstorm in Attempt to Find Boat and Four Men

Two Members of Deck Crew Rescued by Freighter Belgium and Taken to Buffalo

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Coast guard crews and the fishing tug fleet here resumed search this morning in a blinding snowstorm for the missing fish boat Harold G. Beck of Buffalo, which disappeared in a fog Thursday morning with Capt. John Beck and three members of his crew on board. Two members of the deck crew were rescued by the freighter Belgium and taken to Buffalo.

As the hours passed with no news of the craft hooped dwindled that she made a safe anchorage and was riding out the storm. Her engine out of commission and strong southwest wind blowing, it was feared the little craft would beach and pound to pieces or founder.

With Capt. Beck on board the derelict was his son, Harold J. Beck, the engineer, Chris Moore of Sandusky, O., and Harry Newick of Dunkirk.

The tug was returning from the fishing grounds with 1000 pounds of fish aboard when her propeller shaft broke. The master of the freighter Belgium made three unsuccessful attempts to tow the disabled boat to Buffalo, but the lines parted and the Beck drifted off into the fog.

Over the position she believed Miss Watkins held in his life.

Funeral services for Mr. Fee will be held at Alhambra tomorrow.

NO RACE TO THE NORTH POLE

CHRISTIANIA, Nov. 28.—Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, Arctic explorer, today told the Dagblad that there would be no race to the north pole between him and Roald Amundsen. The latter plans to make an attempt to reach the pole next spring by airplane, whereas the airship expedition in which Dr. Nansen expects to participate will require much longer preparation and probably will not start before 1927.

POLICE NOT SHOUTING FOR ANYONE

The following communication is received relative to the attitude of the police department in the mayoralty fight:

Editor, Sun:

The attacks on the police accusing them of trying to dictate the politics of the city are made by the proponents of the administration because the policemen are not out shouting for Mayor Donovan. They are going about their business each day shouting for no one. They refuse to be made an issue in the mayoralty fight.

We invite anyone to show otherwise, and will send him along to the carpet. Now, if there's any side to the police are making in the campaign, it is time to produce it.

Respectfully yours,
EDWARD F. FLANAGAN.

EGYPTIAN TROOPS ATTACK HOSPITAL, KILLING THREE DOCTORS

Mutineers Shoot Down One British and Two Syrian Physicians—British Troops Open Fire on Attackers, Who Suffered Severe Casualties—Many Arrests

LONDON, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—A number of additional arrests of Egyptian deputies were made today, says an agency despatch from Cairo.

Troops in Mutiny
CAIRO, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—Two platoons of the eleventh Sudanese at Khartoum today mutinied and attacked the military hospital, killing one British and two Syrian doctors.

British troops fired on the mutineers, who suffered severe casualties. Further details of the mutiny are not yet available. It is known, however, that a certain readiness existed in the eleventh battalion last August.

The big meeting of the students of Al Azhar university, called for today, passed off without incident.

British troops and infantry again paraded Cairo this morning and aerial reconnaissances were carried out over the principal towns. All were reported quiet.

One of the points in the British demands upon the Egyptian government after the assassination of Sir Leo Stack, the sirdar of the Egyptian army, was for the evacuation of the Sudan by all the Egyptian forces there. A Cairo despatch last night said that when the sirdar gave the necessary orders for the evacuation, the Egyptian officers and troops declined to obey and offered resistance, declaring they would not leave unless they received orders from the Egyptian government.

British troops thereupon surrounded the Egyptians and the government at Khartoum, capital of the Sudan, telegraphed Cairo asking that such orders be issued. The message intimated that the Egyptian troops were ready to resist further but pointed out that they had only 20 rounds of ammunition per man, whereas the British had "unlimited supplies."

After a meeting of the Egyptian ministry to war minister ordered the withdrawal to prevent "useless bloodshed."

Violent Tempest Wrought Havoc Along Coast And in the Interior of France

Rowboat With Eight Occupants Went Down With All Hands

PARIS, Nov. 28.—A violent tempest yesterday wrought havoc both along the western seaboard and in the interior of France, occasioning also some loss of life.

At Nantes a rowboat ferrying homeward-bound workers from the shipyard across the Loire filled and sank when struck by a large wave, drowning the eight occupants. At the Sables-d'Olonne a seaman was swept off a derrick while trying to make the harbor and was drowned.

In the Cherbourg region houses were unroofed and trees uprooted, while a pontoon used in harbor improvement work was torn from its moorings and driven against the steamship Castor, lying in the roads. All steamboat service to Havre was delayed.

Near Le Mans the wind started two freight cars, blowing them into a passenger train, and three persons were injured. Other freight cars were blown off the tracks at Champagne, nearly causing long delays in the Paris-Brest train service.

From Bordeaux several sheds were unroofed and eight military airplanes damaged. Numbers of fishing craft have failed to return to their home ports and it is feared some may have been lost.

MASS. HUNTING SEASON IS EXTENDED

BOSTON, Nov. 28.—With the exception of deer, hares and rabbits, the hunting of all fur-bearing game animals will continue in the state until March 1, the state division of fisheries and game announced today. The open season for deer will open Monday next at sunrise and will end at sunset, Saturday Dec. 6.

The hunting of ducks, geese, brant, mallards and several other classes of game birds will be legal until Dec. 31. The open season for quail, pheasant and woodcock will end tomorrow night.

The deer hunting regulations provide that only shotguns may be used. The hunting of deer with dogs is forbidden and each hunter is restricted to one deer.

A bill filed today with the clerk of the legislature by Talbot Adrich and Joseph Haddock of Milton would make it possible to continue the hunting of water fowl on occasions when the general hunting season has been cancelled because of fire danger.

League Receives Protest
GENEVA, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The League of Nations today received a protest from the Egyptian senate condemning Great Britain's action in Egypt. The document is couched in terms similar to the protest received from the Egyptian chamber of deputies, characterizing the British demands for satisfaction for the assassination of Sir Leo Stack, the sirdar, as excessive and inhuman.

The league also received a letter from J. Hymans, president of the league's council, notifying the secretary-general, Sir Eric Drummond, that Hymans had already received, direct from the president of the Egyptian chamber, a copy of the protest distributed by that body to all the world parliaments and to the league.

Protesters Troop Withdrawal
CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—A resolution adopted at a meeting of members of the nationalist delegation, including many who held cabinet portfolios under Zagloul Pasha, declares the nation does not ask for an arrangement regarding the waters of the Nile but that "it insists on the rights of Egypt in the Sudan."

The resolution protests against the government's consent to the withdrawal of the Egyptian troops from the Sudan, to which step the Zagloul cabinet and parliament categorically refused to agree.

British in Control
LONDON, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The mutiny of the Egyptian troops at Khartoum cannot spread sufficiently to endanger the British position in the Sudan, nor is it likely to have any influence against the British there, it was stated by an official this afternoon.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL GUTTED BY FIRE

NORTH ATTLEBORO, Mass., Nov. 28.—The J. D. Pierce Junior High school, an eight-room brick building on Elm street close to the heart of the business section of the town, was gutted by fire which was discovered at 6 o'clock this morning. The cause of the fire is unknown. Chief Harry Tuttle believes the fire had smoldered several hours before discovery. When the first fire apparatus arrived the interior of the structure was a mass of flames and it was impossible to save anything. Two alarms were sounded, calling all local fire apparatus, and the town of Plainville sent a pumping engine and crew of 15 men to assist the local fire fighters.

One body has been recovered from the debris. Several more miners escaped through water reaching to their necks.

Hundreds of women, relatives of the trapped men, kept night long vigil at the pit head.

Band of Hold-up Men, One Disguised as Woman, Captured in Brooklyn

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—A series of robberies committed in Brooklyn by a band of hold-up men, one of whom was disguised in woman's clothes, ended today with the capture of four alleged members of the band in front of Borough Hall. The loot in the robberies totaled more than $1,000 in cash and jewelry.

Ralph Montana of Brooklyn, driver of a taxicab which was held up by the gang, was shot in the leg when he was slow in complying with the robbers' command to drive "faster" after a passenger in the taxicab had been robbed.

The man, dressed as a woman, made up to represent a blond girl, described himself as Frank Burns of Brooklyn. The others arrested said they were Harry Klug, Frank Andrews and Stanley Jessel, all of Brooklyn.

The police said they found a revolver in the beaded handkerchief carried by the supposed "blond happer."

FRANCE IS THREATENED WITH A COMMUNIST REVOLUTION

Cardinal Dubois Appeals to All French Catholics, to "Fight Against Danger Which Menaces So Imminently—The Hour is Grave—God Protect France"

PARIS, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—France is threatened with a communist revolution, according to a declaration by Cardinal Dubois to be published tomorrow in the Semaine Religieuse, an official Catholic organ.

Appealing to all French Catholics to "fight against the danger which menaces so imminently," the cardinal writes: "The hour is grave. We must react today; tomorrow perhaps will be too late. God protect France!"

The cardinal's manifesto, which is circulated throughout France by the Agency Havas, deals with the red demonstration at the ceremony attending the transference to the Pantheon of the ashes of Jean Jaures, the married socialist leader.

It continues: "Is victorious France, six years after the war, to be a victim of revolution? One may well fear it immediately all good citizens do not resist for the honor and safety of the country."

Cardinal Dubois speaks of the Jaures parade last Sunday in which were "numerous Free Masons decorated with their insignia, with only a few French tri-colored flags."

"And there," he continued, "was a communist army, compact and disciplined. They numbered 20,000, mobilized under the shadow of a multitude of red flags stamped with the hammer and scythe of the soviets. They advanced to the sound of the 'Internationale' shouting, cries of disorder and calls for violence."

"It was a fearful revelation. The danger that one believed to be remote appeared suddenly, and the spectre of sovietism showed itself on our horizon. How many of us then opened our eyes at the passage of the consequences of a policy that our lord France to the worst of catastrophes."

"For communism would be the ruin of that which is dearest to us—religion and country. It would bring upon us the most awful tyranny. Will we let it force itself upon France and repeat the horrors of Soviet Russia?"

"To relieve our conscience as bishop and Frenchmen we wished without delay to sound the alarm. God grant it be heard by all who have the safety of the country at heart."

RUSSIAN REPLY TO BRITISH NOTE

Answer to Alleged Linovief Letter and Anglo-Russian Treaty Received

Soviet Charge d'Affaires to Deliver it to Foreign Office in London

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The Russian reply to the British note regarding the alleged Zinovieff letter and the Anglo-Russian treaty has been received in London and it is expected that Christian Rakovsky, the soviet charge d'affaires, will deliver it to the foreign office today.

The text has not been published as yet, but it is understood to agree with the forecast given out earlier in the week, being along the lines generally anticipated by the foreign office.

A Moscow despatch on Tuesday said the soviet reply to the British note would probably reiterate the demand that the authenticity of the alleged Zinovieff letter be passed upon by an arbitration committee. Regarding the British rejection of the Anglo-Russian treaty, the reply was expected to state that the soviet could do was to express regret that the opportunity had been lost to establish cordial diplomatic and commercial relations.

STRIKE GAS AT DEPTH OF 7428 FEET

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 28.—After drilling for thirty months, engineers in charge of a test well at Longbridge, near Latrobe, Pa., yesterday, struck gas at a depth of 7428 feet, the deepest well in the world. The gas is flowing at the rate of 500,000 cubic feet a day.

Work on the well was started in 1922. At 7000 feet the drill struck exceptionally hard sand. Later the gas came in with such a rush that the drilling cable broke, breaking the drill to the bottom. An effort is being made to fish out the tools.

The gas possesses a strong odor, like that of hydrogen sulphide, according to the engineers.

The total cost of sinking the well was estimated at $200,000.

DRASTIC CHANGE TO DEAL WITH MOTOR VEHICLE LAW VIOLATORS

State Registrar Goodwin Urges Revolutionary Departure
From Present Method—Wants All Cases Turned Over to Him and Not Courts For Punishment

(Special to The Sun)
BOSTON, Nov. 28.—State Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin, who has done many startling things since he became registrar, took one of the most drastic steps in his career today when he announced to the press that he was to the special committee which is investigating motor vehicle problems at the state house he recommended a revolutionary departure from the present method of dealing with motor vehicle law violators.

Goodwin, in a word, recommends that motorists guilty of minor violations, instead of being haled into court and fined, have the matter turned over to the registrar for punishment. Revolution or suspension of a motorist's license would be the ultimate of an accumulation of offenses, the registrar says.

"The loss of a license for a few days," says Goodwin, "would stop such violations much quicker than small fines. The imposition of fines is but a slight deterrent while the suspension of licenses has a wholesome effect."

The registrar believes that this change in the law will greatly reduce the present congestion in our courts and also materially reduce the work of district attorneys.

Mr. Goodwin's statement follows:
To the Joint Special Committee on Motor Vehicle Regulations.

Gentlemen:
I herewith submit as a supplementary report a drastic and revolutionary departure from the present method of dealing with motor vehicle violations of the law. At the present time there are some 50 motor vehicle offenses for which persons may be haled into court and fined or given a jail sentence. In addition to these, there are many more contained in the various traffic regulations made by cities and towns.

For at least thirty-five of the sixty offenses specified in the motor vehicle code and for all of the many offenses provided in municipal regulations, it seems to me absurd to hale violators into court and give them a criminal record. The vast majority of motorists are law-abiding citizens and as a rule minor violations are the result of carelessness, thoughtlessness or even ignorance of our multiplicity of laws.

I would suggest, therefore, that all penalties be repealed for such minor offenses as not having proper equipment, speeding, not sounding the horn, not slowing down upon approaching an intersection of ways, not having a license or registration certificate on one's person, etc.

In lieu of court proceedings, I suggest that officers be authorized to turn over to the office of the registrar of motor vehicles, on blanks furnished by him, a record of every minor violation that comes within their observation.

The violator to be dealt with by the registrar after a sufficient accumulation of these records by suspension or revocation of licenses or registrations.

Instead of summoning into court all the violators of traffic regulations, such as parking in a prohibited street, etc., the police of the various cities and towns should deal only with persistent violators by sending their names to the registrar.

The loss of a license for a few days would stop such violations much quicker than small fines.

Continued
A meeting of precinct officers has been called for next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Chairman Hugh C. McKelvey of the commission said this morning, and the officers will be instructed at this meeting to see that the mayoralty vote is counted as expeditiously as possible and the returns telephoned in as soon as the count is complete.

In previous elections this year, the election commissioners instructed the precinct officers to count the head of each ballot separately and telephone in the vote, but through a misunderstanding or for some other reason, several precincts failed to do this and the result was that the total vote for the candidates at the head of the tickets was not known until the complete vote was counted and returned to the election commission office, which was 32 hours after the closing of the polls in the national and state election.

The polls will be open from 6 a. m. until 8 p. m., as was previously stated, instead of from 6 a. m. until 5 p. m., as was the rule at previous city elections.

A specimen ballot for the election has been printed and contains, in addition to the names of the candidates for mayor, school committee and councilor-at-large, a license question which is as follows:

"Shall licenses be granted for the sale of certain non-intoxicating beverages in this city?"

The candidates and the order in which their names will appear on the official ballot, follow:

For mayor, vote for one:
John H. Braden.
John A. Donovan.

For school committee, two-year term, vote for one:
Edward J. Rogers.
Donald M. Cameron.

ed, and if this is done the mayor-elect will be known within two hours after the polls close.

A meeting of precinct officers has been called for next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Chairman Hugh C. McKelvey of the commission said this morning, and the officers will be instructed at this meeting to see that the mayoralty vote is counted as expeditiously as possible and the returns telephoned in as soon as the count is complete.

In previous elections this year, the election commissioners instructed the precinct officers to count the head of each ballot separately and telephone in the vote, but through a misunderstanding or for some other reason, several precincts failed to do this and the result was that the total vote for the candidates at the head of the tickets was not known until the complete vote was counted and returned to the election commission office, which was 32 hours after the closing of the polls in the national and state election.

The polls will be open from 6 a. m. until 8 p. m., as was previously stated, instead of from 6 a. m. until 5 p. m., as was the rule at previous city elections.

A specimen ballot for the election has been printed and contains, in addition to the names of the candidates for mayor, school committee and councilor-at-large, a license question which is as follows:

"Shall licenses be granted for the sale of certain non-intoxicating beverages in this city?"

The candidates and the order in which their names will appear on the official ballot, follow:

For mayor, vote for one:
John H. Braden.
John A. Donovan.

AT ODDS ON BANKER'S DEATH

Official Opinion Divided as
to Whether W. R. Fee Was Slain or Committed Suicide

Coroner's Jury Holds That
He Was Murdered—Police
Chief Holds to Suicide

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., Nov. 28.—Official opinion stood divided today as to whether William R. Fee, president of two Southern California banks, was slain or committed suicide. A coroner's jury held that Mr. Fee was slain after his body was found in the San Bernardino mountains last Tuesday, 50 feet from a cabin occupied by Miss Mary Watkins, 28, who said she was an affectionate friend of the banker. W. H. Hahsey, San Gabriel chief of police, today pointed out Fee was a pharmacist in his youth and may have taken some unusual poison. A fractured skull, which formed the basis of the coroner's theory, may have been caused by a fall after a self-administered dose, the chief of police pointed out. The finding yesterday of gloves buried in the discarded gloves with other rubbish, Miss Watkins previously explained that clothing owned by Mr. Fee found in her cabin was a gift and provided outing togs when Miss Watkins and her sister entertained men friends.

Mrs. Fee, widow of the banker, who accompanied him to the mountains last Saturday, testified at the coroner's inquiry she had differences with Mr. Fee

RESUME SEARCH FOR FISH BOAT

Rescue Crews Face Blinding
Snowstorm in Attempt to Find Boat and Four Men

Two Members of Deck Crew Rescued by Freighters Belgium and Taken to Buffalo

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Coast guard boats and the fishing tug that here resumed search this morning in a blinding snowstorm for the missing fish boat Harold G. Beck of Buffalo, which disappeared in a fog Thursday morning with Capt. John Beck and three members of her crew on board. Two members of the deck crew were rescued by the freighter Belgium and taken to Buffalo.

As the hours passed with no news of the craft, hope dwindled that she made a safe anchorage and was riding out the storm. Her entire crew of 11 men and strong southwest wind blowing, it was feared the little craft would beach and bound to pieces or founder.

With Capt. Beck on board the derrick were his son Harold, 12, the engineer, Chris Moore of Sandusky, O., and Harry Newick of Dunkirk.

The tug was returning from the fishing grounds with 1000 pounds of fish aboard when her propeller shaft broke. The master of the freighter Belgium made three unsuccessful attempts to tow the disabled boat to Buffalo, but the lines parted and the Beck drifted off into the fog.

Over the position she believed Miss Watkins held in his life.

Funeral services for Mr. Fee will be held at Alhambra tomorrow.

NO RACE TO THE NORTH POLE

CHRISTIANIA, Nov. 28.—Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, Arctic explorer, today told the Dagbladet that there would be no race to the north pole between him and Roald Amundsen. The latter plans to make an attempt to reach the pole next spring by airplane, whereas the airship expedition in which Dr. Nansen expects to participate will require much longer preparation and probably will not start before 1927.

Now, if there is any evidence that the police are mixing in the campaign, it is time to produce it.

POLICE NOT SHOUTING FOR ANYONE

The following communication is received relative to the attitude of the police department in the mayoralty fight:
Editor, Sun:
The attacks on the police accusing them of trying to dictate the politics of the city are made by the proponents of the administration because the policemen are not out shouting for Mayor Donovan. They are going about their business each day shouting for no one. They refuse to be made an issue in the mayoralty fight.

We invite anyone to show otherwise, and we'll send him along to the carpet. Now, if there is any evidence that the police are mixing in the campaign, it is time to produce it.

Respectfully yours,
EDWARD F. FLANAGAN.

EGYPTIAN TROOPS ATTACK HOSPITAL, KILLING THREE DOCTORS

Mutineers Shoot Down One British and Two Syrian Physicians—British Troops Open Fire on Attackers, Who Suffered Severe Casualties—Many Arrests

LONDON, Nov. 28.—A number of additional arrests of Egyptian deputies were made today, says an agency despatch from Cairo.

Troops in Mutiny.—(By the Associated Press.)—Two platoons of the Egyptian Soudanese at Khartoum today mutinied and attacked the military hospital, killing three British and two Syrian doctors.

British troops fired on the mutineers, who suffered severe casualties. Further details of the mutiny are not available. It is known, however, that a certain number of Egyptian troops in the eleventh battalion last August.

The big meeting of the students of Al Azhar university, called for today, passed off without incident.

British cavalry and infantry again paraded Cairo this morning and reconnaissance were carried out over the principal towns. All were reported quiet.

One of the points in the British demands upon the Egyptian government after the assassination of Sir Lee Stack, the commander of the Egyptian army, was for the evacuation of the Sudan by all the Egyptian forces there.

A Cairo despatch last night said that when the acting sirdar gave the necessary orders for the evacuation, the Egyptian officers and troops declined to obey and offered resistance, claiming that they had not been ordered to do so.

They received orders from the Egyptian government. British troops thereupon surrounded the Egyptians and the government of Khartoum, capital of the Sudan, telegraphed Cairo asking that such orders be issued. The mutineers refused to accept the British troops were ready to resist further but pointed out that they had only 20 rounds of ammunition per man, whereas the British had "unlimited supplies."

After a meeting of the Egyptian military war minister declared that withdrawal to prevent "useless bloodshed."

Violent Tempest Wrought Havoc Along Coast And in the Interior of France

Rowboat With Eight Occupants Went Down With All Hands

PARIS, Nov. 28.—A violent tempest yesterday wrought havoc both along the western seaboard and in the interior of France, occasioning also some loss of life.

At Nantes a rowboat ferrying hemlock-bound workers from the shipyard across the Loire, filled and sank when struck by a large wave, drowning the eight occupants. At the Sublette d'Oleone a seaman was swept off a ketch while trying to make the harbor and was drowned.

In the Cherbourg region houses were unroofed and trees uprooted. At a point used in further improvement work was torn from its moorings and driven against the steamship Caster, lying in the roads. All steamboat service to Havre were delayed.

Near Le Mans the wind started two freight cars blowing them into a passenger train and three persons were injured. Other freight cars were blown off the tracks at Champagne, nearby, causing long delays in the Paris-Brest train service.

At the Breton airbase several sheds were unroofed and eight military airplanes damaged. Numbers of fishing craft have failed to return to their home ports and it is feared some may have been lost.

MASS. HUNTING SEASON IS EXTENDED

BOSTON, Nov. 28.—With the exception of deer, hares and rabbits, the hunting of all fur-bearing game animals will continue in the state until March 1, the state division of fisheries and game announced today.

The open season for deer will open Monday next at sunrise and will end at sunset, Saturday Dec. 6.

The hunting of ducks, geese, brant, mallards and several other classes of game birds will be legal until Dec. 31.

The open season for quail, pheasant and woodcock will end tomorrow night.

The deer hunting regulations provide that only shotguns may be used. The hunting of deer with dogs is forbidden and each hunter is restricted to one deer.

A bill filed today with the clerk of the legislature by Talbot Adrich and Josiah Babcock of Milton would make it possible to continue the hunting of water fowl on occasions when the general hunting season has been cancelled because of fire danger.

League Receives Protest

GENEVA, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The League of Nations today received a protest from the Egyptian League, condemning Great Britain's action in Egypt. The document is couched in terms similar to the protest received from the Egyptian chamber of deputies, characterizing the British demands for satisfaction for the assassination of Sir Lee Stack, the sirdar, as excessive and intolent.

The league also received a letter from M. Hyman, president of the league's council, notifying the secretary-general, Sir Eric Drummond, that Hyman had already received direct from the president of the Egyptian chamber, a copy of the protest distributed by that body to all the world parliaments and to the league.

Protests Troop Withdrawal

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—A resolution adopted at a meeting of members of the national delegation, including many who held cabinet portfolios under Zagloul Pasha, declares the nation does not ask for an arrangement regarding the waters of the Nile but that "it insists on the rights of Egypt in the Sudan."

The resolution protests against the government's consent to the withdrawal of the Egyptian troops from the Sudan, to which step the Zagloul cabinet and parliament categorically refused to agree.

British in Control

LONDON, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The mutiny of the Egyptian troops at Khartoum cannot spread sufficiently to endanger the British position in the Sudan, nor is it likely to have any influence against withdrawal to prevent "useless bloodshed," an official this afternoon.

Pierce junior high school, an eight-room brick building on Elm street close to the heart of the business section of the town, was gutted by fire which was discovered at 5 o'clock this morning. FRANCE IS THREATENED WITH A COMMUNIST REVOLUTION

Cardinal Dubois Appeals to All French Catholics to "Fight Against Danger Which Menaces So Immensely—The Hour is Grave—God Protect France"

PARIS, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—France is threatened with a communist revolution, according to a declaration by Cardinal Dubois to be published tomorrow in the Semaine Religieuse, an official Catholic organ.

Appealing to all French Catholics to "fight against the danger which menaces so luminously," the cardinal writes: "The hour is grave. We must react today; tomorrow perhaps will be too late. God protect France!"

The cardinal's manifesto, which is circulated throughout France by the Agency Havas, deals with the red demonstration at the ceremony attending the transference to the Pantheon of the ashes of Jean Jaures, the martyred socialist leader.

It continues: "Is victorious France, six years after the war, to be a victim of revolution? One may well fear it immediately all good citizens do not resist for the honor and safety of the country."

Cardinal Dubois speaks of the Jaures parade last Sunday in which were "numerous Free Masons decorated with their insignia, with only a few French tri-colored flags."

"And there," he continued, "was a communist army, compact and disciplined. They numbered 20,000, mobilized under the shadow of a multitude of red flags stamped with the hammer and scythe of the soviets. They advanced to the sound of the 'Internationale' shouting cries of disorder and calls for violence."

"It was a fearful revelation. The danger that one believed to be remote, appeared suddenly, and the spectre of sovietism showed itself on our horizon. How many of us then opened our eyes at the passage of the consequences of a policy that can lead France to the worst of catastrophes."

RUSSIAN REPLY TO BRITISH NOTE

Answer to Alleged Linovief Letter and Anglo-Russian Treaty Received

Soviet Charge d'Affaires to Deliver it to Foreign Office in London

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The Russian reply to the British note regarding the alleged Linovief letter and the Anglo-Russian treaty has been received in London and it is expected that Christian Rakovsky, the soviet charge d'affaires, will deliver it to the foreign office today.

The text has not been published as yet, but it is understood to agree with the forecast given out earlier in the week, being along the lines generally anticipated by the foreign office.

A Moscow despatch on Tuesday said the soviet reply to the British note would probably reiterate the demand that the authenticity of the alleged Linovief letter be passed upon by an arbitration committee. Regarding the British rejection of the Anglo-Russian treaty, the reply was expected to state that all the soviet could do was to express regret that the opportunity had been lost to establish cordial diplomatic and commercial relations.

STRIKE GAS AT DEPTH OF 7428 FEET

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 28.—After drilling for thirty months, engineers in charge of a test well at Longbridge, near Lathrop, Pa., yesterday, struck gas at a depth of 7428 feet, the deepest well in the world. The gas is flowing at the rate of 600,000 cubic feet a day.

Work on the well was started in 1922. At 7000 feet the drill struck exceptionally hard sand. Later the gas came in with such a rush that the drilling cable broke, breaking the drill to the bottom. An effort is being made to fish out the tools.

The gas possesses a strong odor, like that of hydrogen sulphide, according to the engineers.

The total cost of sinking the well was estimated at $200,000.

We carry so many individual, one-of-a-kind garments that it is not unusual for some to move slower than others; and for this reason we go through out stocks and mark down all slow selling styles. Below you will find listed the various garments we place on sale today. There may be a few inaccuracies in these lists; but there are no wilful misstatements—the only possibility of error is in the garments being sold before the sale opens.

We are Pleased to Announce the Opening of Our New Excella Pattern Department

Excella Patterns possess a smartness and distinction rarely seen except in high-priced ready-to-wear garments of the work of the finest dressmakers.

Chic, distinction, smartness are the qualities the modern woman wants in a pattern, but a design may possess all these requirements and lose every one of them in the making.

It is for this reason that we emphasize the mechanical perfection of Excella Printed Patterns. They are not only printed, but are also perforated and cut out, and in addition they include the famous 'Photograf'.

It is impossible to go wrong in making up an Excella Printed Pattern, and every bit of the chic smartness of the original design appears in the finished garment.

An After-Thanksgiving Sale of Coats and Dresses Began Today

These repriced lots are all selected from our regular stock. At this time we always find an accumulation of style numbers that must be reduced—either the range of sizes and colors are not complete and cannot be reordered or it may be an odd coat or dress of high grade and price. We must reduce our price to clear away this merchandise and give the needed space for new models arriving the first of December.

COSTUME PARTY
Employees of the Hub hosiery company conducted a costume party in S.C.A. hall, Middle street, Wednesday evening which was attended by several hundred young people. General dancing was enjoyed during the evening and several special dances were put on which were very entertaining. Refreshments were served during intermission. The committee in charge of the event follows: Emile Trudel, general manager; Fred Bordeleau, assistant general manager; Joseph Carpentier, floor director; Alice Traversy, assistant floor director; Eugénie Douville, treasurer; and Gertrude Beauchesne, chief aid. The aids were Oscar Pelschard and the Misses Rose Christmann, Marguerite Bial, Marie-April, Regina Isabelle and Corrina Coulombe.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 14

A character party under the auspices of the Silesia Mills Athletic association of North Chelmsford was held in the mill recreation hall Wednesday night and proved a huge success. After the grand march, which was led by Mrs. Agnes W. Gilmore and her wife, general dandling was enjoyed. For the best character costume James Murray of this city won first prize in the men's division, while Mrs. Fred Heywood won the women's first prize. John McElhinis of the city won a 20-pound prize for lucky admission tickets. Arthur L. Rousseau was general manager of the affair.

Will the Rich, Red Blood Rush Back?

PRESS the flesh firmly between hand and thumb. Now watch—how long does it take the blood to come back? Unless it is practically instantaneous in its return, Anemia—blood starvation—is indicated. You cannot have energy and vitality unless your blood contains the iron and manganese content that Gude's Pepto-Mangan alone can supply.

For thirty-two years thousands of physicians have seen thousands of patients regain health and strength by the daily use of Gude's Pepto-Mangan. The blood assimilates its energizing properties and restores the latent power to every cell of the body.

Your druggist now has Gude's
Pepto-Mangan in liquid or tab-

SAYS KIDNEYS CLOG AND NEED FLUSHING

Drink Water Freely and Often.
Also Take Salts if Back Hurts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with mild, harmless salts which help to remove the body's urinous waste and activate them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 2 1/2 hours the strain from 11,500 grams of acid uric waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

3. Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much, also get from acid salts about four ounces of Jamaica salt, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may thank you. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used in the past to help cleanse and activate the clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system and thereby to bring a source of irritation, often relieving bladder weakness.

And I feel inexpensive; can not afford to injure myself. I take a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active.
Try lithia, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv.

"After him!" shouted Jack. "Whoever can catch hold of the cart gets the first ride." Every midget joined the chase. Flip went around corners like the wind and on several occasions almost tipped the cart over. Then he would go even faster on a straight path.

Jack figured that the midgets would bring his dog back as soon as one of them caught up to the cart. So he sat down on a little toadstool to rest. You can imagine how surprised he was when the toadstool started to rise up in the air, taking Jack toward the ceiling of Midget Land.

At first Jack decided to slip down off of the teardstool. Then he changed his mind and decided to hang on just to see where it would take him. Surely, he thought, I can only go up as far as the ceiling. But, much to his surprise, when he got that far the ceiling opened up. (Continued.)

Has Hard Time to Feed Wife

Once Stomach Trouble—Now Big Appetite

"My wife was afflicted with stomach trouble for years. She tried everything but got no relief. Adlerika was recommended to me and I want to give my heartfelt thanks. My wife is now in the BEST OF HEALTH and is costing me about all I make to feed her. Have recommended Adlerika to a good many and it has helped every one." (Signed) E. M. Noble.

Intestinal Evacuant

There is now offered to the public a liquid preparation which is not only a wonderfully effective and QUICK intestinal evacuant, but which also seems to stimulate the glands of the intestinal tract and to cause a condition of status (known as "catarrh") of the mucosa. This preparation, called Adierika, is a valuable agent for the purpose of cleansing the bowels of matter which has been in the system a long time and which other less effective means have been unable to dislodge. It is especially valuable in great amount in the matter Adierika draws great amounts of material from the intestinal canal—even right after a natural movement. It sometimes brings and unaccounted quantity of additional matter. Adierika also brings out much of the material which has been in the subdomum. Adierika is especially valuable when PROMPT action is necessary or to encourage the elimination of metabolic poisons through the bowel.

In slight disorders such as occasional constipation or gas on the stomach and headache (when due to bowel inaction), a single spoonful of Adierka often produces surprising and gratifying results. In cases of obstinate constipation or stomach trouble, if Adierka does not bring relief in 24 to 36 hours the advice of a reputable physician should be secured.

Reports From Physicians

"I congratulate you on the good effect from Adierka since I prescribed it." (Signed) Dr. L. Langlois.

"Adierka is the best in my entire 37 years' experience." (Signed) Dr. G. Langlois.

"I prescribed Adierka with highly satisfactory results." (Signed) Dr. A. C. C. (Name given on request.)

"I can't get along without Adierka." (Signed) Dr. W. Bernhart.

Fatal Auto Accident on Lawrence Road

gino of 121 Haverhill street, Lawrence; Tony Amore, 10 Elm street, Lawrence; Victor Consoy, 51 Essex street, Lawrence; Joseph Douano of 46 Common street, Lawrence, and John Carr of 167 Newburyport street, Lawrence. They all received numerous cuts and abrasions.
The accident was investigated by Sgt. Frank Maloney of the local police, who reports that upon his arrival he found the Lightman machine locked with the Lawrence machine on the side of the road opposite to that on which it was proceeding prior to the accident. He questioned Dr. Lightman who said he was driving the car at a moderate rate of speed and became blinded by the headlights of the other car.

DR. PERCY LIGHTMAN

The driver of the Lawrence car, Mr. Lightman, could give no information as to the cause of the accident and said he was proceeding towards Lawrence at an ordinary speed and was on his own side of the road.

The accident occurred at the junction of the new and old Lowell-Lawrence boulevards near the street railway car barns. The Lawrence-owned car, a large Hudson sedan, was proceeding towards Lawrence and the Lightman car was bound for Lowell. It is believed that one of the cars was on the wrong side of the traveled way and collided head-on with the other. Both machines were badly wrecked by the impact, the Lightman machine being practically demolished.
At police headquarters this noon, Deputy Superintendent Hugh Downey said that an arrest or arrests would probably be made as soon as the injured, still in the hospitals, are able to be questioned concerning details of the collision.

ONLY ONE TERM

It Eliminates Politics From the Mayor's Office—It Prevents the Building of a Dangerous Political Machine

BRADEN

One Term Only

MY OPPONENT INSINUATES that a man who runs on a one term platform cannot be trusted, although all the objections he raises against a single term apply equally to the second term of a candidate who goes out of office.

I REPUDIATE his insinuations as false, unjust and unwarranted.

HIS PUBLICITY BUREAU knows that the worst evil in the government of American cities today is, that as soon as politicians are elected, they begin to use the resources of the city to entrench themselves in office so that they can DEFY THE PEOPLE.

THE ONE TERM official needs no political machine.

HE DOES NOT NEED to replace efficient public officials by his own POLITICAL TOOLS.

HE DOES NOT NEED to have the heads of departments and many of the subordinates spending the time they should devote to the city's service in electioneering for his reelection.

HE DOES NOT NEED to sacrifice the city's interests or her good name to his own political fortunes.

IT IS in order that I may give full and untrammelled service to the city that I have adopted the ONE TERM idea.

IT WAS FOR THE SAME REASON that the legislature, at the request of Mayor Peters, limited the Mayor of Boston to a single term. What is good for Boston is equally good for Lowell. Politics is the same in both cities.

IF ELECTED, I will be a faithful, fearless servant of the people—NOT A FIGUREHEAD, wholly dependent upon a designing coterie of hungry politicians.

MOREOVER, When I am elected, I will not shirk responsibility when any department breaks down, nor when it appears that the liquor laws are not being strictly enforced.

AS MAYOR FOR A SINGLE TERM I will drive politics from the mayor's office, so that I can give my best efforts to the interests of the city instead of following the usual custom of subordinating those interests to the work of seeking re-election.

THOMAS H. BRADEN,
320 Wilder Street.

A black and white portrait of a man with a mustache, wearing a suit and a fedora hat, looking slightly to the left. The image is a high-contrast, grainy photograph, possibly a newspaper clipping or a stylized print. The man has dark hair, a prominent mustache, and is wearing a dark suit jacket over a light-colored shirt and a dark tie. He is wearing a fedora hat with a dark band. The background is plain and light-colored.

SUGAR DOLL

It was only a little sugar toy; like a doll they had molded it neat. And it gave little sister a heap of joy, for she knew that this dolly was sweet.

It only cost daddy a penny or two, but the cost plays a trivial part. The thing that means much is that wee little Sue let the dolly crawl into her heart.

Whenever she'd eat, sugar dolly was there perched serenely on Sister Sue's tray. Always together, this queer little pair spent their time through the hours of the day.

Why, Sister would bless it and lovingly dress it. She'd say, "I'm a mamma to you." She never would scold it. She'd close to her hold it like regular mamma-folks do.

Then this wee little maid really grew quite afraid that she'd lose sugar dolly while sleeping. So she kissed it good-night, then this queer tiny maid put the sugar doll up—for safekeeping.

The East End club of Centralville will hold an open political rally to-night in Odd Fellows hall, Bridge street. All candidates for office are invited to attend and speak, beginning at 8 o'clock.

YESTERDAY'S FIRES

A telephone alarm at 3:30 yesterday afternoon was for a chimney fire at 173 Bayette street. A 7.50 yesterday morning box 32 was sounded for a slight blaze in the cab of an auto truck registered as the property of H. Maki.

Queen Mary of England sometimes does not appear so gorgeously dressed in her photographs on formal occasions. But how about this costume? She was going to a picture show.

SERVICES IN LOCAL PROTESTANT CHURCHES

Protestant churches throughout the city observed Thanksgiving Day both with religious services and in some cases with appropriate festivals. There were union services at the First Universalist church in the morning, the speaker being Rev. G. D. Fagan, pastor of the First Baptist church. Rev. Harold Hynes presided at this service and Rev. Louis E. Shields offered prayer. Other pastors taking part in this service of prayer, sermon and Thanksgiving were Rev. John T. Ullon and Rev. William B. Tuttle, D.D.

Impressive religious services featured the annual Thanksgiving Day exercises conducted in St. Anne's church yesterday morning. Rev. Appleton Gramlin conducting. There was a communion service at 8 a. m. and morning prayer at 10:30, with a short sermon by the pastor.

The "Thanksgiving note" was emphasized during the second service by the use of the Benedicite the general Thanksgiving and the Thanksgiving hymns of the Prayer Book. The hymn "God Bless Our Native Land," was also sung. The offering was devoted to the fund for providing dinners for poor families.

If frequent shaving irritates your skin use Resinol

Perhaps the daily shave makes your sensitive skin burn and smart, or it may cause a rash which is uncomfortable and embarrassing. RESINOL OINTMENT helps greatly to relieve and clear away such ailments, but RESINOL SHAVING STICK tends to prevent them entirely. Its rich, generous, non-drying lather makes shaving a pleasure because no after-shaving lotions are necessary, and the face is left smooth, cool and soft. Resinol products at all druggists.

OUNCE OF MUSIC WORTH POUND OF PILLS

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—If you are suffering from ingrowing personality, try a scherzo.

For hardening of the heartiness, take a hypodermic injection of melody. When your temper tempers your

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gna, Sourness and Pain.
How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not, as some believe, to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food acids causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try taking aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Disurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Disurated Magnesia (in powder or liquid form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Adv.

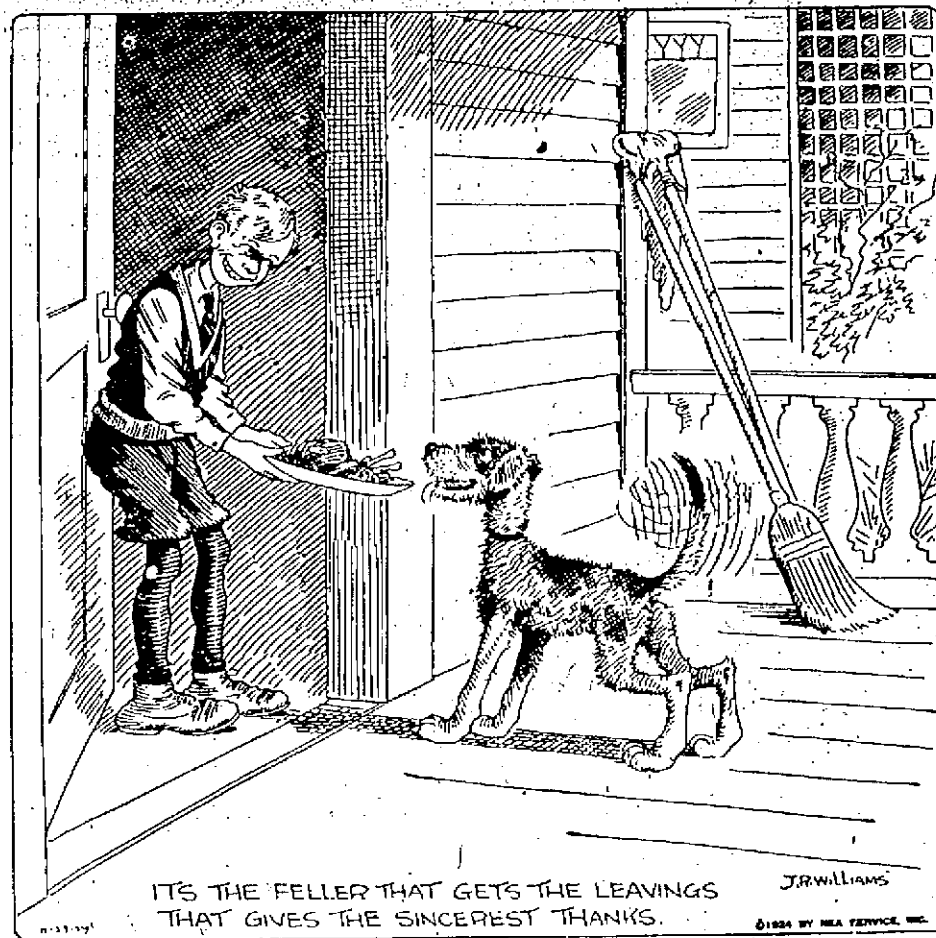

temper, too, is a sure-fire antidote. When you are ill in the future, don't be surprised if your doctor writes you a prescription like this: "One Valise Caprice mixed with one Hungarian Rhapsodie, flavored with a tincture of Polonaise Militaire. Heaping tablespoonful three times a day."

Or, according to his diagnosis, one like this: "Two dumb canines of 'The Bee's Knees,' five and a half drams of 'Them High-Brown Blues' with three grains of 'Mammy's Little Alabama Coon.' To be taken in half a glass of water after meals."

Musical Therapeutics is the latest science. A. G. Gulbransen, of Chicago, the pioneer apostle, says music is a panacea for mental ailments and an effective remedy for many bodily maladies.

"An ounce of music is worth a pound of pills," said Mr. Gulbransen, who is the world's largest piano manufacturer and attributes his health, wealth and happiness to music. "There is a whole pharmacopoeia of curative medicine in a song. Melody lifts one out of one's self and out of sickness. It is a psychological opium salt. It purges the mind and stimulates and revivifies the physical functions." It is an necessary to the home as hygiene. The registered piano is on a par with the registered pharmacist as an agent of health. A doctor should carry a roll of music and a roll of bandages in the same case. Music is a good medicine. It cures when all drugs fail."

Y. M. C. I. SHOW A BIG SUCCESS

"Under the Spotlight, '24" is Happy Vehicle For Display of Talents

Enthusiastically Greeted at Auditorium Last Night—
To Be Repeated Tonight

Amid a splash of brilliancy and to the accompaniment of the latest songs and dance arrangements, under the spotlight, "24" was presented before a capacity audience in Memorial ings. Anna Cavanaugh, Stella Naughton, Catherine O'Connor and Margaret Clancy, brings back memories of other days and gives a well-placed foreign atmosphere to the opening scene. After a series of silk broadened blue and gold, the young girls offer numerous songs and are assisted by the end men and entire chorus. "Y.M.C.I. Here We Come," ensemble number auspiciously announces

the general excellence of the program
and is a stirring tribute to the "Alma Mater," as it were, arranged to the tune of "Nightingale."

Joseph Cravenstein (Craven) and William Kelleyburg (Kelley) as Jewish vendors, interrupt the program in its opening number to advertise their wares and upon being offered a sum of money by Thomas J. O'Donnell, interlocutor, agree to entertain the audience. Their song, "Goodbye, Goodbye," with ensemble chorus, is one of the many features on the program.
End men, Frank McCarthy, Edward Cawley, Frank O'Neill, Patrick Maguire, William Collins and Frank Lynch, prove their worth and provoke much hilarity. The allusions of End Men McCarthy given at the expense of Brother "Eddie" Cawley are given in a well-directed yet sufficiently disguised manner, which, however, leaves
the audience in doubt as to the different tune Eddie will listen to Saturday. In vocal numbers, the end men were very entertaining and Frank O'Neill's rendition of "Red Hot Mamma" brought rounds of applause which were duly recognized with an encore.
"Goodbye, Goodbye," by Edward Cawley,
may well be termed the favorite number. Encored again and again.
Mr. Cawley kept his audience keyed to the occasion as he interpreted
the very popular melody.
"Nobody Knows What It's All About,"
by Frank McCarthy is also a hummer
and in the end, the stage convinces his listeners that "no one knows what it is all about," by cleverly arranging his verses, which in their indirect yet entertaining rendition proved most popular. "Iard Heavens Hannah," by Patrick McGuire and "Dixie's Favorite Song," by William Collins, are also offered as end songs.

Miss Sadie Sheehan, popular local contralto interprets "Memory Lane," in pleasing voice while Raymond Kelley
tenor, pleases with "West of the Great Divide," and "I Wonder What's Become of Sally."

These Adams McDermott, soprano, in the selected number "If Love Were All," graciously responded to encores
last evening.

A character song "Pretty Peggy," with Miss Alice Dacey soloist, assisted by the dancing ponies, Misses Bertha Choquette, Gladys Droney, Marion Mullen, Blanche Giffin, Gladys Droney, Evelyn Moran, Madeline McLaughlin and Annabelle Maughan in most entertaining, the

"ponies," in gowns of back and gold, chiffon greatly enhancing the sketch as they prance daintily across the stage.

Andrew McCarthy, baritone, was most enthusiastically welcomed in his first and entertaining with "Driftwood,"
and "Will She Come From the East,"
assisted by the chorus.

Miss Dorothy Nolan in "Charlie My Boy," assisted by the front line girls
is indeed a charming "boy" and her number last evening was well received.

Miss Celia Crowe in a ballet number was one of the many pleasing offerings
and the young dancer's interpretation
of the more difficult toe dances was given with alacrity and precision
found only in the accomplished dancer.

The sketch "Christmas Morning," with Charles Keyes as the clown and outlet, whose vain efforts to get arrested are foiled by a "cop," a hum, a thief, a flirt and a son-in-law in order of appearance, is most hilarious. An hellish in the person of Miss Margaret Montague, however, in her feigned generosity passes "Charlie's" counterfeit bill and in ignorance presents it them to the "cop," Bob Hart, who accepting of the village vamps and the village sheiks would leave too little to the performers to interpret. This sketch alone is well worth the price

of admission.

Jackie Payne, boy singer, made his debut in the world of song last evening when he entertained with vocal numbers. As a "favorite" Jackie was sincerely applauded and proved his songs that he will soon have to place among Lowell's popular talent.

The grand finale, with patriotic tinge is one of the most brilliant sketches offered locally for some time.
With Miss Sadie Sheehan, soloist, and Miss Alice Dacey, leader, this number is given with military grandeur as
the corps, dressed in suits of red and gray execute numerous military movements. America, Scotland, Italy, England, France and Ireland are all united in its own and each nation sings a song and adds greatly to the tableaux which is verily a sea of colors, the flags of the various nations represented being prettily arranged in a circular manner and adding greatly to the general beauty of the score.

CONSPIRACY TO EXTORT MONEY FROM PRINCE

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The jury in the Robinson conspiracy suit involving an unnamed Indian prince rendered a verdict this afternoon finding that a conspiracy had existed to extort money from the prince, known as Mr. "A," but that Robinson and Mrs. Robinson were not parties to it.

The jury also found that Mr. "A" was induced to part with two checks for 150,000 pounds each through such fear and alarm that his mind was unsettled and that the act was not free and voluntary.

After these findings the jury again retired to consider further questions put to it by Justice Darling, the presiding judge.

Important to all Women Readers of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Dr. Kilmer's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Yours health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes anyone so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle to get what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive a sample bottle, too, by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.—Adv.

Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions?

Do you know why ointments do not give you quick and lasting relief?

Why cutting and operations fail?

Do you know the cause of piles is internal?

That there is a stagnation of blood in the lower bowel?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy discovered by Dr. Leonard and known as HEM-ROID, now sold by Green's drug store and druggists generally, that is guaranteed?

HEAD-ROID banishes piles by removing the internal cause, by freeing blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for cure, safe and lasting relief to thousands of pile sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation. There is no reason why it should not be the same for you.—Adv.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Resumption of trading in the stock market after the holiday was accompanied by another brisk upturn in the first five minutes of trading on a large turnover. United States Steel selling at 117½, touched 117½, a price equivalent to the high mark established last week. Outstanding incidents of the early trading were the sales of 5000 shares of Pennsylvania and 10,000 shares of International Nickel at the year's highest levels.

Expectations of a rapid improvement in the steel industry, based on the favorable developments outlined earlier in the week, promoted renewed accumulation of these shares. Several high records were established by Steel, with Crucible leading the way with a three-point gain. Popular Industrials, such as American Can and Baldwin, followed United States Steel upward, and demand broadened for miscellaneous shares, including Allied Chemical, American Smelting and American Steel Foundry. Famous Players and American Water Works, up 1 to 2½ points, and Hall-Edwards, which gained 1½, were price changes in the rail group were narrow, although Lackawanna advanced a point. Stocks which moved counter to the general trend were Fleischmann, St. Paul preferred and Wilson & Co. preferred, which yielded 1½ to 2½ points. A score of top prices were marked up in the first half-hour. Foreign exchanges opened firm.

THANKSGIVING EVE PARTY IN TOWN HALL

One of the most successful parties ever conducted by the Howa High School Alumni Association of Billerica took place at Thanksgiving eve in the town hall, and was the annual dancing party for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

The town hall was beautifully decorated, vari-hued streamers being suspended from the chandeliers in the center and looped to the corners. The walls were decorated with hand-colored artificial leaves, and the same material was used in the corners of the hall as well, adding greatly to the beauty. Mrs. Harrison M. Rainie had complete charge of the decorations.

A feature of the party was a favor march, in which over 100 couples took part. Mr. and Mrs. J. Dana Richardson led the march, with Allison Dole and Mrs. Harrison Rainie, John Delgman and Miss Marion Sheridan, Lorimer Schmidt and Miss Gwendolyn Smith following.

A Lowell orchestra furnished music for dancing. An intermission was held at 11 o'clock and refreshments were served by a Lowell caterer.

The committee in charge was as follows: J. Dana Richardson, chairman; John Barington, Mrs. Harrison Rainie, Miss Alice Jones, John Delgman, Jr., Allison Dole, Nell R. Mahoney, Robert Jacobs, Mrs. Raymond Schmelzer, Miss Marjorie Perry, Miss Marion Sheridan and Arnold Okuro, Mrs. Henry D. Livingston and Charles Ranlett.

DRASTIC CHANGE TO DEAL WITH MOTOR VEHICLE LAW VIOLATORS

State Registrar Goodwin Urges Revolutionary Departure
From Present Method—Wants All Cases Turned Over to Him and Not Courts For Punishment

(Special to The Sun)
BOSTON, Nov. 28.—State Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin, who has done many startling things since he became registrar, took one of the most drastic steps in his career today when in a communication addressed to the special committee which is investigating motor vehicle problems at the state house he recommended a revolutionary departure from the present method of dealing with motor vehicle law violators.

Goodwin, in a word, recommends that motorists guilty of minor violations, instead of being haled into court and fined, have the matter turned over to the registrar for punishment. Revocation or suspension of a motorist's license would be the ultimate of an accumulation of offenses, the registrar says.

"The loss of a license for a few days," says Goodwin, "would stop small violations much quicker than small fines. The imposition of fines is but a slight deterrent while the suspension of a license has a wholesome effect."

The registrar believes that this change in the law will greatly reduce the present congestion in our courts and also materially reduce the work of district attorneys.

Mr. Goodwin's statement follows:
To the Joint Special Committee on Motor Vehicle Regulations,
Gentlemen:

I herewith submit as a supplementary report a drastic and revolutionary departure from the present method of dealing with motor vehicle violations of the law. At the present time there are some 100,000 motor vehicle violations in our courts, and it is estimated that 100,000 more will be added in the next few months.

For at least thirty-five of the sixty offenses specified in the motor vehicle code and for all of the many offenses provided in municipal regulations, it seems to me absurd to hale violators into court and give them a criminal record. The vast majority of motor vehicle law violators are the result of carelessness, thoughtlessness or even ignorance of our motor vehicle laws.

Instead of our present method of punishing motor vehicle law violators, I suggest that officers be required to forward to the office of the registrar all motor vehicle violations, on blanks furnished by him, a record of every minor violation that comes within their observation.

I would suggest, therefore, that the registrar, after a sufficient accumulation of these reports or registrations, instead of summoning into court all the violators of traffic regulations such as parking, and one-way street rules, the police of the various cities and towns should deal only with persistent violators by sending their names to the registrar.

The loss of a license for a few days would stop such violations much quicker than small fines.

Expect Quick Returns On Mayorality Vote

ed, and it is this done the mayor- ed, and it is known within two hours after the polls close.

A meeting of precinct officers has been called for next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Chairman Hugh C. McOsker of the commission said this morning, and the officers will see that the majority vote is counted as expeditiously as possible and the returns telephoned in as soon as the count is complete.

In previous elections this year, the precinct officers instructed the head of each precinct to count the head of the vote, but through a misunderstanding or for some other reason, several precincts failed to do this and the result was that the total vote for the candidates at the head of the precinct was not known until the complete vote was counted and returned to the election commission office, which was 22 hours after the closing of the polls in the national and state election.

The polls will be open from 6 a. m. until 6 p. m., as was previously stated. Instead of from 6 a. m. until 4 p. m., as was the rule at previous city elections.

A specimen ballot for the election has been printed and continuing in addition to the names of the candidates for mayor, school committee and councilor-at-large, a license question which is as follows:

AT ODDS ON BANKER'S DEATH

Official Opinion Divided as
to Whether W. R. Fee Was Slain or Committed Suicide

Coroner's Jury Holds That
He Was Murdered—Police
Chief Holds to Suicide

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., Nov. 28.—Official opinion stood divided today as to whether William R. Fee, president of two Southern California banks, was slain or committed suicide. A coroner's jury held that Mr. Fee was slain after his body was found in the San Bernardino mountains last Tuesday, 50 feet from a cabin occupied by Miss Mary Watkins, 36, who said she was an affectionate friend of the banker.

W. H. Halsey, San Gabriel chief of police, today pointed out Fee was a pharmacist in his youth and may have taken some unusual poison, a fractured skull, which formed the basis of the murder theory, may have been caused by a fall after a self-administered dose, the chief of police pointed out.

The finding yesterday of gloves buried in the rear of the cabin occupied by Miss Watkins added new official interest to the case, but she explained she buried the discarded gloves with other rubbish. Miss Watkins previously explained that clothing owned by Mr. Fee found in her cabin was a gift and provided cutting tools when Miss Watkins and her sister entered the room.

Mrs. Fee, widow of the banker, who accompanied him to the mountains last Sunday, today said she believed Mr. Fee held at Alhambra tomorrow.

over the position she believed Miss Watkins had in his death.

Funeral services for Mr. Fee will be held at Alhambra tomorrow.

NO RACE TO THE NORTH POLE

CHRISTIANIA, Nov. 28.—Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, Arctic explorer, today told the Dagbladet that there would be no race to the north pole between him and Roald Amundsen. The latter plans to make an attempt to reach the pole next spring by airplane, whereas the airship, expedition in which Dr. Nansen expects to participate will require much longer preparation and probably will not start before 1927.

KLANSMEN PAY OFF CHURCH MORTGAGE

ONEIDA, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Three hundred members of the Ku Klux Klan attended services at the African Methodist Episcopal church here last night and paid off a mortgage of $850 due on the church. The presentation was made by Rev. R. N. McConnell of Stockbridge. Six of the klansmen were robed, but none was masked.

ANOTHER HOTEL BURNED LOSS $75,000

PINE HILL, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Flames which destroyed the Pine Hill hotel, one of the oldest hostleries in the Catskill mountains, and the Hill block containing several stores, was brought under control early today through the combined efforts of the fire departments of the town of Pine Hill and the town of Arkville.

On Wednesday night the hotel at Arkville with a loss of $20,000. The cause of neither blaze has been determined.

POLICE NOT SHOUTING FOR ANYONE

The following communication is received relative to the attitude of the police department in the mayorality fight:

Editor Sun:
The attacks on the police accusing them of trying to dictate the politics of the city are made by the proponents of the administration because the policemen are not out shouting for Mayor Donovan. They are going about their business each day shouting for no one. They refuse to be made an issue in the mayorality fight.

We invite anyone to stand otherwise, and we will send him along to the carpenter. Now, if there is any evidence that the police are mixing in the campaign, it is time to produce it.

Respectfully yours,
EDWARD F. FLANAGAN.

Rescue Crews Face Blinding
Snowstorm in Attempt to Find Boat and Four Men

Two Members of Deck Crew
Rescued by Freighter Belgium and Taken to Buffalo

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Coast guard crews and the fishing tug fleet here resumed search this morning in a blinding snowstorm for the missing fish boat Harold D. Beck of Buffalo, which disappeared in a fog Thursday morning with Capt. John Beck and three members of her crew on board.

Two members of the deck crew were rescued by the freighter Belgium and taken to Buffalo.

At the hours passed with no news of the craft, hope dwindled that she made a safe anchorage and was riding out the storm. Her engine out of commission and along southwest and blowing, it was feared the little craft would beach and pound to pieces or founder.

With Capt. Beck on board the derelict were his son, Harold J. Beck, the engineer, Chris Moore of Saratoga, O., and three members of the crew.

The tug was returning from the fishing grounds with 1000 pounds of fish aboard when her propeller shaft broke. The master of the freighter Belgium made three unsuccessful attempts to tow the disabled boat to Buffalo, but the line parted and the Beck drifted on into the fog.

over the position she believed Miss Watkins had in his death.

Funeral services for Mr. Fee will be held at Alhambra tomorrow.
